Daly City Birth Rate The "Highest"

Daly City has the highest birth ratio of any city in the United States.

This claim was borne out by Hollywood author and feature writer Leo Guild, who says: "Let the most barren of couples move into the Daly City area and the stork takes a healthy bite out of them."

Guild, currently writing a feature article on Daly City births for Knight and Bluebook magazines and "The People," a Sunday newspaper printed in London, England, said he was asked to gather information on this subject due to a magazine story which ran about six months ago in "Baby Talk" magazine.

This magazine, he said, noted that Daly City's birth rate is about 701 babies per year per 1,000 women. "This is consistently almost double the national average."

"I asked several people and doctors," said Guild, "and they said the average temperature in Daly City is about 54.2 the year round... about the same as everywhere else... so the reason for all the births couldn't be the temperature."

"Los Angeles physician Dr. Lewis Bruce theorized that when vegetables are grown in areas near the ocean they have a high iodine content... hence high virility."

"Daly City has increased 302 per cent in 20 years... which is staggering."

"One other theory: the area around Daly City, because of its large number of churches and religious leaders, would automatically have very few abortions... The United States overall rate of abortions is about one million per year, he stated."

Guild quoted psychiatrist Margaret Steger, who added that the reason for all the high births may be because Daly City is a "happy area, where there is scenery and water... this is a happy area, making for more marriages and more children."

Death Comes To Honeymooner

Clifford Chase, 21, a 1959 graduate of Westmoor High School, drowned recently in the Creuse river in France while on his honeymoon, according to a telegram received from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sallet, 752 Stewart avenue, Broadmoor.

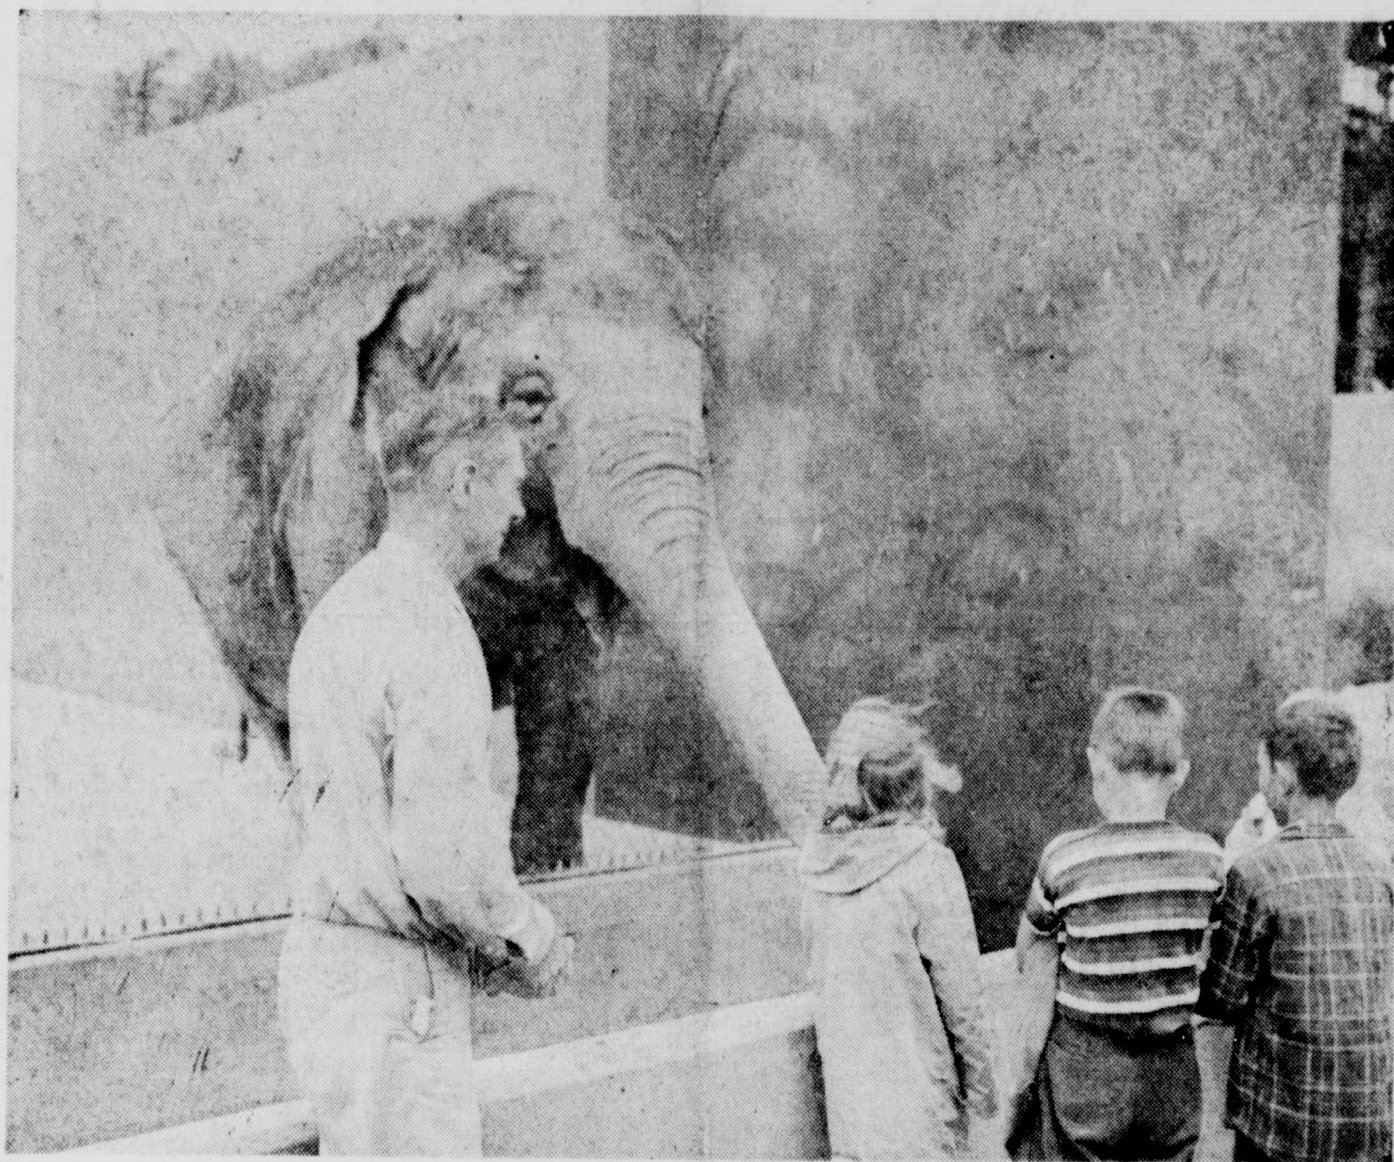

Chase, a truck driver for an Army transport outfit, was stationed at Ingrand, France. He had served in France two years. He was married August 9.

Junipero Serra Accident Injury

Mrs. Lillian Anna Searle of 2135 46th avenue, San Francisco, was seriously injured Monday afternoon when her auto struck a pole on Junipero Serra boulevard.

The accident, which occurred during the 5 p. m. rush hour, is still under investigation by the Daly City police department.

Mrs. Searle was taken to the Junipero Serra Hospital in Daly City and later transferred to the French Hospital in San Francisco.

HAVE A PEANUT—Daly City youngsters got the full treatment last week as guests of the city recreation department as they took in all the sights at the San Francisco zoo—including a chance to feed the elephants. Zookeeper (left) watches youngsters as they shell out the peanuts.

Foreign Exchange Student Greeted

Miss Helena Frisell from Stockholm, Sweden, arrived last week in Daly City to spend a year at Westmoor High School as the first foreign exchange student.

Some 14 representatives from the high school and sponsoring American Field Service were

Huge Sculpture For San Jose

Robert Nissen, 38-year-old Daly City high school teacher, will soon adorn the Santa Clara County Welfare Building in the San Jose Civic Center with one of the few public figure sculptures in the whole Santa Clara Valley.

Nissen, a teacher at Westmoor, has fashioned a handsome group to represent society in progress. It depicts six people of varying ages and attitudes and ages moving forward along a path.

The eight to 10-ton group will be hoisted into place on a four-foot wall in about a month. Nissen, a native of the Bay Area, studied at San Jose State College and received his Master's Degree in art from Stanford University. He lives in Redwood City with his wife and two children.

They Complained In The Old Days Also

Back in the old days in Daly City, traffic problems were caused by too much horse manure on the roads and flies getting in the eyes of children.

Now we have too much carbon monoxide from exhaust pipes and too much traffic.

Each age seems to have its share of requests and protests to the city, as the old 1912 records of the Daly City city council proceedings at the City Hall show.

After several complaints of immoral dances, the Daly City city council, on August, 1912, passed a resolution stating that "Dances, known as the Turkey Trot, the Bunny Hug, the Texas Tommy and dances similar to or of such character are hereby declared disorderly and immoral."

There were several complaints from wives asking the city fathers to issue edicts to local saloon keepers to keep their husbands out of the bars. This was at a time when Coffroth's sports arena was a popular place for boxing exhibitions. Requests for police assistance were made for the

Four Weeks Left For Voter Registration

"Approximately four weeks remain for those persons not registered or those not properly registered to become eligible to vote at the November 6th General Election," advised County Clerk John A. Bruning today.

The last day to register, or if you have moved to correct your registration, for the November 6 General Election is Thursday, September 13. Registration qualifications are: Citizenship; age 21 years or over; one year's residence in the state, 90 days in the county and 54 days in the precinct prior to the date of the election.

In addition to the Election Registration Department in the Hall of Justice and Records, Redwood City, and at the offices of all City Clerks, over 490 registration deputies are located throughout the county to take voters' registrations.

North County registration deputies are:

More Buckets

On March 11, 1912, trustee Mullins reported "the firemen were greatly in need of buckets and ladders." Company 2 had just possessed a new fire wagon.

Mrs. Shoup, on July 28, 1912, complained that geese and chickens were running at large in her neighborhood.

Total number of school children in Daly City in 1912 was listed at 614. The number now is over 15,000.

Safe Boating Classes Slated

Basic Seamanship Classes are being presented by the U. S. Coast Guard Auxiliary. These classes are open to the public at no cost and are particularly recommended for the new boatman.

September 26, an 8-Lesson Basic Seamanship Class is commencing in Daly City at the Jefferson High school, time: 8 p.m. Listed below is the schedule. (Continued on Page 2)

Query Husband In Fatal Shooting

Richard Sims Named Lieut.

Richard G. Sims has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant in the Daly City Police Force.

Sims, who came out best in written and oral tests over two other candidates, replaces Albert C. Conci, who recently resigned.

RICHARD G. SIMS

A criminology major at San Jose State College, Sims studied police supervision at San Mateo Junior College and is also a graduate of the county FBI recruit school. He will take charge of the night watch of the third platoon.

Sims, 29, served as sergeant for one year and three months. He is married and resides with his wife, Audrey and five children, all girls, at 849 Skyline, Daly City.

New Plan To Re-Arrange County Voters

A new plan to prevent "population bulges" in the apportionment of the supervisory districts of San Mateo County has been submitted by the San Mateo County Democratic Council.

The plan seeks a "Coastside District" in order to give each district no less than 17 per cent nor more than 24 per cent of the total population.

Chairman W. Mark Sullivan said the plan, submitted on August 1 would place existing coastside incorporated cities in a single coastside district.

This would be the fourth district and would include Daly City, Pacifica, Half Moon Bay and the territory south of Lobos Creek.

Daly City police this week were questioning Robert O'Brien, 29, who claimed the fatal shooting of his wife, Kathleen O'Brien, 29, of 169 Avalon street, was an accident.

Two young children of the broken marriage saw their mother killed by a single shot fired from a gun in the hand of their father.

A frightened man, friend of the victim, thinking he would be shot next, leaped out of the house and broke both ankles.

Mrs. O'Brien died at the curb in front of her home.

Police said O'Brien drove up to the house about 11 a.m. with a friend, Eric Moncour, of 405 Palmcrest, San Francisco, and parked on the wrong side of the street. He picked up two of his four children—Kevin, 7, and Colleen, 4—and was to take them target shooting.

O'Brien said he, Moncour and the children were all in the front seat and he was talking with Mrs. O'Brien, who was standing on the curb. Then he said he reached under the front seat and took his .45 caliber pistol from a box, intending to put it under the back seat where the children couldn't reach it.

The husband said he removed the ammunition clip. Police, however, said he had forgotten one bullet which remained in the weapon's chamber.

As O'Brien shifted the automatic to the rear seat, it accidentally discharged and Mrs. O'Brien fell, a single bullet in her chest. Mrs. O'Brien had filed for divorce last October in Santa Clara County. Stanley Ross, 31, of 2600 - 38th avenue, San Francisco, had been dating Mrs. O'Brien.

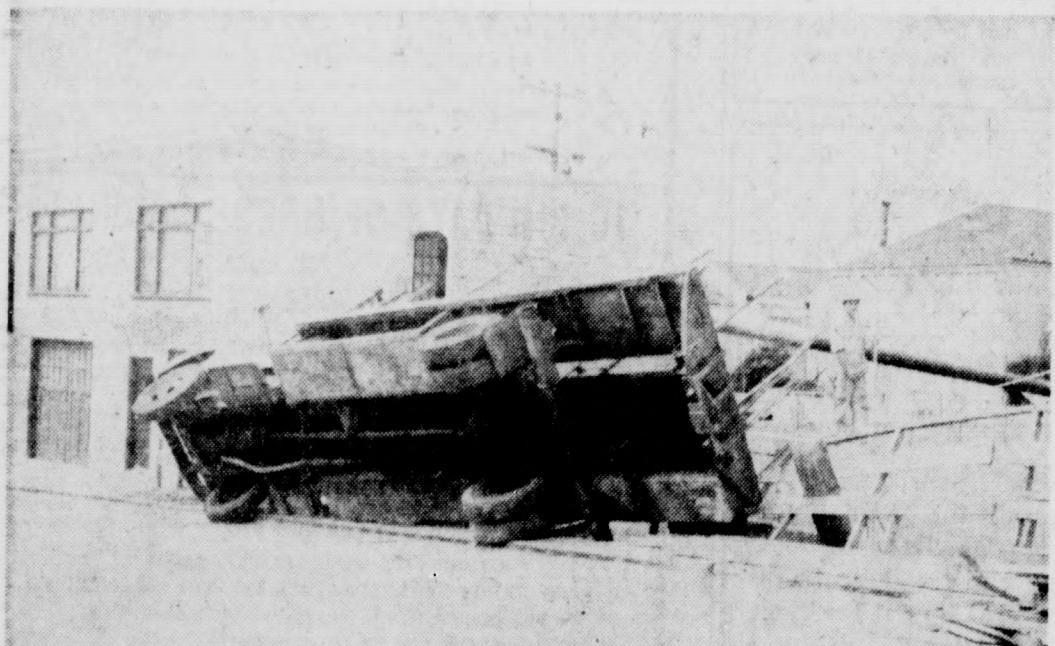

He heard the shot, looked out and saw the woman lying on the curb. Ross dashed through the house and jumped out a back window, landing in the back yard 25 feet below. Ross was taken to Peninsula Hospital for treatment of ankle fractures.

Beauty Salon Hit By 'Parked' Car

A parked car that suddenly became "un-parked" smashed the front of the Broadmoor Beauty Salon in the Broadmoor Shopping Center on Junipero Serra boulevard Aug. 16, injuring the car's occupant, Mrs. Harris W. Beck.

Officers said Mrs. Beck attempted to start the car while her husband walked from the car to obtain help in starting the vehicle. She started the auto, then put her foot on the accelerator instead of the brake, officers said.

Mrs. Beck was given emergency treatment for a cut forehead and taken by Mercy ambulance to St. Joseph's Hospital in San Francisco.

OFF THE BEAM — A heavy laminated beam proved too much Monday for workers on the new $75,000 Grace Chapel at Los Banos and Santa Barbara in Daly City. A truck-operated crane lowering the beam toppled over onto the sidewalk. Rev. D. M. Thomas, pastor, said the church, now in the sixth week of construction, is expected to be completed by Christmas. Labor of the new edifice is almost entirely from the local congregation.

NEW MORTUARY — Ground-breaking for the new Duggan's Mortuary was held Aug. 15 in Daly City. Shown breaking into the tools at construction site are (from left) Bill Duggan, Fred Houweling, architect; Robert Ganske, general contractor; E. J. (Bud) Duggan, owner-operator; Edward J. Dennis, city councilman and Joe Verducci, mayor of Daly City. Duggan, president of Duggan's Funeral Service, in San Francisco, said the building, to be completed early next year, will house a north and south chapel, lobby and showroom. The mortuary area—a full two blocks long—situated next to Marchbanks Park parking lot, will provide parking for 100 cars. Duggan said the mortuary, Daly City's second, will serve the "fast growing area" of Daly City, Colma, Parkmerced, Stonestown and Ingleside Terrace.

Neville Ford Under New Management

Harry Stevenson has been appointed the new General Sales Manager of the Daly City Ford Dealership. Stevenson comes to Neville Ford from the East Bay Area. Stevenson has an outstanding background in the automotive industry. He brings both youth and fifteen years of experience to the position with him. Stevenson points out that Neville Ford expects to continue its seventeen years of outstanding service in meeting all the automotive needs of the residents of the Bay Area and stresses that even more emphasis will be put on individual service to all of Neville Ford's customers.

Pakistanian Visits DC Lions

Dady Mame, 23, a Lions Club member from Karachi, Pakistan, was a guest of the Daly City Lions Club on Aug. 15, at Toto's restaurant.

The tall, dark haired Pakistanian is in business with his father who owns a custom house brokerage, a typewriter and carbon paper business and rice husking mill.

Mame, who is visiting the United States as part of a Lions sponsored Youth Exchange tour, hunts wild boar, but has never tried the Bengal Tiger. He is visiting at the home of Ray Logan.

Logan showed movies at the meeting of the Lions International parade held in Nice, France.

Quicker Payments For Sick Vets

Hospitalized veterans with dependents will get faster service in receiving pension payments as a result of a new law enacted by the 87th Congress, Glenn Corbitt, manager of VA's northern California regional office, announced this week.

The law previously specified that when these veterans were in VA hospitals more than two months, their pension payments would be reduced to $30 a month, with the balance sent to their family in a separate check. This often resulted in delayed payments.

Under the new law, the veteran with dependents will continue to receive the full amount of his pension while in a VA hospital.

The $30 pension limitation still applies to hospitalized veterans with no dependents.

DC Man Speaks In Seattle Today

Arnold Panella, 6767 Mission street, Daly City, will give a speech before the Seattle Life Insurance Underwriters Association today in Seattle.

Panella, who is an associate of the Forrest J. Curry Agency of San Francisco, will speak on "The Changing Procedures of a Career Underwriter."

His speech will be part of the sales congress presented by the Curry Agency. This is the first time in the history of the life insurance profession that an agency has been asked to put on a sales congress for an underwriting association.

State Division of Forestry fire fighters at Belmont arrived at 2:30 p. m. with three units and a bulldozer and quelled the advancing flames, but not until a total of 80 acres of brush had burned off the rolling hillsides.

SM County Vet CSO Has Many Duties

The duties and functions of the County Veterans' Service Officer, when listed, fill three closely typewritten pages, according to San Mateo County Veterans' Service Officer Floyd D. Granger.

But, in more human terms, Granger points out that the CSO—as he is more familiarly known—means many things to many veterans and veterans' dependents.

To the widows and dependents, the CSO is the man to see whenever help is needed in regard to pension, compensation, GI insurance, records, or claims.

When it comes to education for the deceased or disabled veteran's children, the CSO is again the man to see if the children are between the ages of 14 and 27.

To the veteran himself, the CSO is the man to see for a list of services, including assistance in establishing eligibility for such State of California benefits as the Farm and Home purchase program or admittance to the Veterans' Home; assistance on employment matters, and assistance on various claims before the Veterans' Administration.

In other words, says Granger, if it deals with the veteran, the CSO is the man to see.

The San Mateo County Veterans' Service Office is located at the Courthouse, in Redwood City.

DALE H. WEIBEL, 1056 Skyline drive, Daly City was granted a commission in the United States Navy, grade of Ensign, reserve status, on July 2. He is a graduate of Westmont High School, class of 1958 and attended San Francisco City College. He completed one year of schooling in the University of California School of Dentistry. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Z. Weibel who have two other children, Dean, 27, a former United States Navy man with the grade of Lieutenant J. G., and Carol, 21, a student at the University of California in Berkeley. The elder Weibel is principal of the Daniel Webster School in Daly City.

School at the Naval Air Technical Training Center, Memphis, Tenn.

The two-week curriculum includes aircraft familiarization, types and missions of aircraft, first aid, fire-fighting and aircraft designations.

Daly City-Colma Jaycees In All-Out Member Drive

The Daly City-Colma Junior Chamber of Commerce, in an all-out effort to make the newly-organized Jaycees one of the biggest and best civic groups in the Bay Area, are enlisting the services of three of their members to contact all of the local businesses in Daly City and Colma and give them the opportunity to join or sponsor a membership.

Heading the membership drive are Sgt. Dave De Wayne, U.S. Marine Corps recruiter;

Sgt. Bernie Herbert, U.S. Air Force recruiter, and Chief Jack Kelly, local Navy recruiter and public relations chairman for the Jaycees.

The purpose of the Jaycees is to develop leadership, promote business and community development, to work hand in hand with the city council and other civic organizations in rendering aid to crippled children, the blind and any other worthwhile cause.

The Jaycees have the full support of the city council and are being sponsored by the San Francisco Junior Chamber. Young men between the ages of 21 to 35 are urged to join and grow tall with the Jaycees. Businesses are being urged to sponsor memberships. The Jaycees feel that a close-knit city is a good place in which to live and work. Applications can be obtained by calling Jerry Shain, DE 4-6900, or Jack Kelly, PL 6-3740.

The Rayburn Foundation will issue a first-day cover of long-lasting quality with an artist's sketch of the Sam Rayburn library and Mr. Rayburn's home.

Younger said that orders for this valuable cover should be addressed to the Bonham Chamber of Commerce, Bonham, Texas. The price is 25 cents, plus postage. Orders should be placed as soon as possible.

Two Burglaries Cleared By Arrest

Daly City detective James Doran has cleared up recent burglaries of the California Institute of Music, 2125 Junipero Serra boulevard and Cooper Realty (same address) with the arrest of a 15-year-old Jefferson High School student. The youth was committed to Hillcrest Juvenile home.

Doran said $1,569 in musical instruments were taken in the June 25 break-in at the music store. A radio, desk articles and small amount of coins were stolen at the realty office.

BINGO A FAVORITE

In Britain the game of bingo is sweeping the country. Latest gimmick to be added to the game, according to the National Automobile Club, is a garage where you can drive in, sit in your car while you play bingo, and indicate the fact that you have a winning card by giving one short blast on your horn.

Pacifica 4-H Enters California Fair

More than 5,400 head of California's top livestock have been entered in the California State Fair and Exposition, opening for a 12-day run August 29 and continuing through September 9, with "Accent on Youth" as a theme.

Entries from San Mateo County include 24 4-H members who will be competing for more than $21,000 in premiums, according to Clarence L. Azevedo, Sacramento, State Fair director in charge of the junior division.

North County entries include:

Pacifica 4-H: William Hopper, Pacifica, one Polled Hereford, and Judy Wynell Hopper, one Hereford, two Polled Herefords, and one market beef.

Bruce Lintt, Half Moon Bay, Half Moon Bay 4-H Club, will show two Southdown sheep and two market sheep.

In addition to the quality livestock show, the State Fair will present 12 nights of professional rodeo, with top-ranking cowboys competing for cash awards and titles: Lawrence Welk and his Champagne Music Makers, September 4, 5, and 6; plus pari-mutuel horse-racing plus a program of education and entertainment for the whole family.

Beginner Folk Dancers In DC

Now that the children are going back to school, what are Mom and Dad planning for themselves?

Folk dancing is a movement that is well organized in California through the Folk Dance Federation and locally, through folk dance councils.

Its scope ranges from the individual, to couples, to groups and areas such as in Daly City, and far beyond that.

On Friday, September 14, there will be a class for beginners, couples only, from 8 to 10 o'clock, in the Choral Room of the War Memorial Community Center on Mission street in Daly City. Single women will be accepted only so far as single men are registered.

There will not be another class for new folk dancers in Daly City until next year, so register now for either class by calling Elsie MacLaren, director, at PLaza 5-0065 evenings.

Fact Sheet -- 'K. O. Polio' Program

What is the K. O. Polio Program?

It is a community endeavor, spearheaded by the physicians of the Bay area, to wipe out polio as a threat to life and health. The success or failure of the program depends on the active cooperation of every organization and individual in the Bay area. Everyone has a responsibility to participate for the protection of the community.

The aim: To vaccinate the 3,500,000 residents of six counties with thoroughly-tested Sabin oral vaccine... three drops on a cube of sugar to be swallowed by everyone from three months to the eldest citizen. This is the largest mass polio immunization program in history.

How: Polio vaccination stations will be set up in schools and other convenient locations on three Sundays. These stations will be throughout Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, San Francisco, San Mateo and Santa Clara counties.

When: September 23, November 4 and December 9. Separate doses on each clinic date will immunize against one of the three types of polio. Everyone must attend all three dates to assure immunity to paralytic polio.

Expected results: Eradication of polio from the Bay area.

Why a mass immunization? Unless virtually 100 per cent of the population is immunized, the threat of polio will still exist. This program is to eliminate polio.

Who will administer the polio vaccination stations? Thousands of volunteers, including physicians, school principals, nurses, pharmacists, medical assistants, members of hospital auxiliaries, PTAs, service clubs, Boy Scouts — all groups and individuals interested in destroying the threat of polio.

Who will be responsible for the program? The Bay Area Medical Association Committee, representing all the physicians of the six-county Bay area, is coordinating the program.

Making Crime Unprofitable

Crime, which is a major and growing problem in this country, can be curbed and made unprofitable — if those concerned display the needed determination and dedication.

The Acme Markets, Inc. (formerly American Stores Company), a retail chain, tells the encouraging story of what happened in Philadelphia.

Beginning in 1949, and continuing for eight years, the company's small neighborhood stores were subjected to 95 armed holdups. Two managers were murdered, and two police officers died in line of duty.

The district attorney and the police department, aided by full company cooperation, brought all their resources to bear. One result: All 83 of the bandits participating in the 95 holdups were arrested. All were convicted and sent to prison, ten for life terms.

A second result: In the succeeding four years and two months, there were but two armed holdups in company stores, and one has been solved. The thugs have learned that this is a case where crime doesn't pay. Here is the kind and quality of law enforcement, backed by citizen cooperation, the whole country needs.

'How To Lose Jobs'

The Altoona (Pa.) Mirror recently devoted an editorial to the highly important topic of "How to Lose Jobs."

A proposed law in Maine would raise the employer taxes which are used to meet unemployment benefits from one-half per cent of payroll to an eventual 2.7 per cent.

An iron works in that state says that this would increase its cost of doing business by $230,000 a year. Recently, the works, as low bidder, received a $72,000,000 contract.

However, its bid was less than $90,000 below that of an out-of-state competitor. Had the newly proposed unemployment taxes, with their influence on overhead costs been in effect, it would have lost the contract. And numbers of its 3,000 employees

SCIENCE FACT AND FABLE

BEFORE 1900, PARALYTIC POLIO WAS RARELY REPORTED IN THE U.S., BUT IN THE FIVE DECADES THAT FOLLOWED, THE DISEASE TOOK A FRIGHTFUL TOLL. IN 1955, THE INTRODUCTION OF THE SALK VACCINE BROUGHT AN ABRUPT CHANGE IN THE PICTURE.

THE SUCCESS OF THE SALK VACCINE HAS BEEN SPECTACULAR, AND THE NEW LIVE VIRUS POLIO VACCINE, DEVELOPED BY DR. ALBERT B. SABIN, OFFERS STILL ANOTHER STEP TOWARD THE ULTIMATE GOAL OF ERADICATING POLIO.

THE NEW SABIN POLIO VACCINE IS ADMINISTERED WITH DISTILLED WATER FROM A DROPPER, SPOON, OR PAPER CUP TO INFANTS AND SMALL CHILDREN. ADULTS DRINK IT OUT OF A CUP. THE SABIN VACCINE CAN GIVE IMMUNITY IN ABOUT ONE WEEK.

COUNTY DOINGS

by JACK WOOD

The county board of supervisors have approved the position of a full-time public relations officer whose job it will be to get the message to the people.

The position will have a starting salary of $614 per month.

County manager E. E. Stallings said the lack of adequate public education has been one of the biggest weaknesses in the county's past civil defense programs.

Supervisor James V. Fitzgerald, area Civil Defense coordinator, said the position is an absolute necessity if the San Mateo County program is to have a county-wide civil defense program.

Approval of a new county rehabilitation officer was delayed indefinitely.

Undersheriff Wesley Pomeroy asked the board to authorize the position which has been recommended by the county Civil Service Commission.

San Mateo County's fair and fiesta wound up with large crowds which pushed the attendance records over last year's margins.

Total attendance for the nine-day affair was 179,863. The previous year's figure was an all-time high of 178,787.

Some $200,000 more was bet at Bay Meadows during the fair than last year.

County Dream Girl Carol Ann Maraccini has set her sights for a new contest—the Maid of California competition for August 29 to September 9 at the California State Fair in Sacramento.

Carol is 18 years old, weighs 114 pounds, measures 35-24-35 and is 5 feet 4 inches tall.

Something For Everyone

by Samuel Chandler

A shy young scholar, a high-spirited girl, and a magnificent picture — the nude form in Botticelli's Birth of Venus — these are the figures in one of Frank Slaughter's novels. They represent Dr. Slaughter's formula for historical fiction; mix a fascinating period of history with dramatic characters — some lewd and some nude — and dress the result with intrigue and adventure, then feed it to the patient in a book covered with a colorful jacket.

But this is not Dr. Slaughter's only formula. No, he writes two other kinds. "I do a Biblical," he says, "then a historical, then a modern medical." In his medicals he mixes the modern operating room with blood and lore and drama that makes Ben Casey and Young Doctor Malone seem quite normal.

In his Biblicals, his formula changes. He heightens the drama and soft pedals the sex and gore. Use of these formulas makes him a successful author. Yet, he wrote 250,000 words a year for five years and was paid $12. Finally, his novel, "That None Should Die," became a best seller and was translated into ten languages. Since then he has packed his scalpel and pills and devoted himself to writing.

Although his books are widely read and usually made into movies or TV shows, they have been disclaimed by many students of literature. The critics call his work excruciating dullness, malarkey, and pure tripe. Dr. Slaughter, in return, says that he writes what the public reads and the critics give him a case of increased stomach acidity.

would have joined the ranks of the unemployed.

This is just one of many examples that could be listed of taxes and tax rates that are self-defeating and destructive by their very nature. This country wants and needs more job opportunities. The over-all tax picture has a great deal to do with whether or not those opportunities will be created.

How long can a government survive that requires one out of every six of the nation's workers to run it, and has spent so much more over the years than it has taken in that it owes 1.2 trillion dollars — or $6,642 for every man, woman and child in the country? These figures from a Senate Republican Policy Committee report suggest that it really is time for that change we heard about in 1952.

The View From .. Behind The Badge

Written and Edited by Daly City Police Department

The hucksters...

They descend upon the neighborhood and ring each doorbell. They endeavor to sell their wares to the householder. They are the door-to-door solicitor.

Many of the solicitors are people earning an honest living. A few are con-men, who are making a barely honest living. Some are burglars.

The intended victims of the dishonest solicitor is the householder — the lone housewife, the unsuspecting youngster, the absent resident.

It is the purpose of the police to be on the lookout for such people. It is part of the mission of the policeman on patrol to question any and all solicitors and to determine the legitimacy of their business in the neighborhood.

There are but 40 policemen, however, and not all of these are on patrol at the same time. There are more than 50,000 residents in the city, though, and they can help us to help them. They can do this by calling PLaza 5-5212 and notifying the police of any suspicious person or any unidentified solicitor in the neighborhood.

No one is allowed to solicit in Daly City without having been cleared by the police department and the finance department. ANY LEGITIMATE SOLICITOR WILL HAVE IDENTIFICATION ISSUED by the city. IF THEY DO NOT HAVE SUCH IDENTIFICATION, they are not to be considered as being within the law, and the police should be notified at once.

Identification looks like this:

CITY OF DALY CITY
Solicitor's Permit

M.....has complied to all conditions and regulations of the police department and permission is hereby granted to solicit from house to house, in the City of Daly City, to take orders for.....

Company represented.....

Address.....

Signature.....

Approved.....

Date issued.....Expires.....

The identification card is green. It will always be signed by a member of the finance department. The members will always be either Wilma Riley, Marian Benedetti, Florence Sibbach, or Allen Hertel.

The card will be completely filled in. It is not good after the expiration date.

No one may legally solicit without such identification. No one may refuse to show the householder such identification upon request.

Magazine sales people and so-called disabled veterans will tell the householder that they are not required to pay the city a fee in order to solicit. In some cases, this is true — but the SOLICITOR MUST RECEIVE PERMISSION AND BE IDENTIFIED AS ABOVE. Any other story is an outright lie, and householders should beware of such people. Police should be called whenever any doubt exists as to the legitimacy of the solicitor's identification.

In no case is it legal to solicit after dark.

Citizens should call the police at any time a solicitor has not or will not identify himself with the green card, in any case when the solicitation is made after dark, and in many cases when the solicitor is impolite or overly aggressive or forceful.

A householder is never required to let anyone in his house, even should they be properly identified. Housewives allow strangers to enter the house at considerable risk, whether or not they possess identification. False identification has, at times, been displayed. Should any of the foregoing circumstances exist at any time, the police should be called immediately. If the solicitor has committed a criminal act, he will be jailed and prosecuted.

If the solicitor has been legally authorized to ply his trade, and any of the foregoing conditions exist, his permit will be taken away instantly.

No householder should ever suffer any form of high pressure or impoliteness on the part of a solicitor. Whenever doubt exists, the police should be called. Citizens should beware that the solicitor could be casing a house for a burglary.

One housewife complained that she had been raped by a magazine solicitor. She had allowed him to enter the home where she was alone. She did not ask for identification, and he did not identify himself.

Citizens should also remember — even should the solicitor be properly identified, the householder is not going to get something for nothing — beware the fast-talking solicitor!

When solicitors apply for permits, their criminal backgrounds are checked by Sergeant Sundermann. This usually takes a week. He is empowered to reject any such applications if, in his opinion, the person should not solicit in the community, in light of having an arrest background.

The police department strongly favors a much stricter ordinance with which to govern solicitors than the present City Ordinance 291. In the meantime, however, the present ordinance is being vigorously enforced. A sharp eyed, suspicious, aware public can help the police guard against burglars, rapists, thieves, and con men posing as solicitors.

When in doubt — call the police — PLaza 5-5212, 212, War Memorial Building.

From A Feminine Viewpoint...

By Mona Baker

No one is quite as up on fashion "know-how" as teenagers. Mothers, particularly those of small boys, wonder if their offspring will ever get over the torn jeans and grimy neck, hand stage — take heart, mothers, they do. Certainly proof that young people are interested in their appearance is found right in our own area.

Just appointed to their teen-age advisory board by the H. Liebes store in Westlake are five local young ladies who will serve for one year. The girls include Linda Caldwell and Gloria Moore of Westmoor, Joyce Gaggero and Joyce De Maggio of Jefferson and Janice Lasky of Mercy. They were recommended for their scholastic achievements and interest in retailing and selected after an interview. They will hold a meeting every three weeks and among their activities will be fashion shows.

Already scheduled is a fashion show cleverly titled "Boy O Boy O Boy" presented by the new board and New England Men's Shop to be held this Saturday at 1 p.m. in the Westlake Mall.

The girls on the board will select the models and clothes to be shown and Linda will be the commentator.

So just in case your teen-ager hasn't evidenced an interest in clothes, tell him to drop by the mall — we're sure he will come home filled with ideas for a new wardrobe.

On the subject of young people, our nominee this week is a shining example of a community leader who has unselfishly served the youth of the community. Her activities extend in so many directions that we wonder where she has found enough hours in the day to accomplish so much.

Very active in PTA she has held both local and county offices. In addition to being president of Garden Village PTA and numerous chairmanships during the past years, she was charter president of M. Pauline Brown last year, where she received a "life membership." For the coming year, she has been elected historian for the 17th district and will also serve as legislative chairman at Benjamin Franklin.

She is an ordained deacon in the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church and a member of the San Francisco Inner Guild. She also was in charge of the primary department at the church's summer family conference at Tahoe.

A native daughter, she was born in Daly City, attended Crocker, General Pershing and was graduated from Jefferson. She went on to study journalism at San Francisco State and San Mateo Junior College and was one of two women financial editors in the country during the war when she worked on the "News."

We salute Bunny Gillespie as our community leader of the Civil Defense Education Service of San Mateo of the week. The Gillespies, husband Ke and daughter, Perky, reside at 1967 Gilman drive.

Oh, dear, we almost forgot. She is also a member of the Civil Defense Education Service of San Mateo County. She recently attended a meeting on civil defense in Sacramento and will be journeying to Anaheim in October for a conference. In her "spare time" she took a radiation course with Daly City firemen and is an official "Geiger Counter reader." Whew-w-w!

Over a delicious Chinese luncheon at exotic Sai Wu Gardens, consisting of such goodies as almond chicken, oyster beef, barbecued spareribs, we said "goodbye" to Elaine Wolfe, the Y's popular director who will enter UC graduate school in a couple of weeks. She will be greatly missed by her many friends in the area — do come back and visit us, Elaine.

Is it not "farewell" but "hello" and an exciting time it was as a welcoming party met Westmoor's first foreign exchange student, Helena Fissell of Sweden, who arrived last week at the San Francisco airport in a chartered plane bringing other students to the Bay area. Greeting her was her host family, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Manson and daughter, Jayne; American field service representatives, including Mr. and Mrs. Ed Raymond; faculty representatives, and student members at Westmoor's American Field Service Club.

Wedding bells this Saturday afternoon for Sherry Lee Franze, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Franze of South San Francisco, who will marry Wayne Gillette. Her waltz length wedding gown is of silk organza over taffeta and lace with a dainty sweetheart neckline. For her going away ensemble she has selected a tweed suit with black patent accessories.

NEWS BRIEFS: Vacations are still news among localites. Off to San Diego to attend her son's (Fred) graduation from Naval Training Center is Gene Clark. Then on to a week of camping at Big Sur with other son, Bill, and wife, Lois.

Also journeying south is the Tom West family where Tom will be on active duty at Camp Roberts for two weeks.

Off on a vacation of deep sea fishing in Mexico is the Marvin Dreith family, who will also visit in southern California.

It was a vacation at Disneyland for Bill and Lillian Wagner and two daughters, Diane and Marilyn.

Visiting her sister and husband, Commander and Mrs. William Glowasky, at Annandale, Va., was Mrs. Wesley Rossina.

Just back, too, from a thrilling trip to Bermuda is Ruth Rogers.

North to Hillsboro, Ore., went the John Madisens, visiting their 90-year-old father, Peter Madisen.

House guests of Maxine and Frances Irwin are her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson, from Fort Morgan, Colo.

Also visiting from the midwest at the Pete Markovich home are Jean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Reinecke, from Nebraska. The Markovich family spent their vacation at Disneyland, Lake Tahoe and in Nebraska.

REMINDER: Social calendars are filling up fast because just around the corner is September. Do let us know about your coming social events soon. Drop a note to "Feminine Viewpoint," care of Marchbanks Publications, 3317 San Jose avenue, Daly City.

Two Westmoor Graduates Take Holy Vows At OLM

Sonja Maria Petrovsky and John Henry Blake, Jr., were united in holy marriage before an altar decorated in white stock at Our Lady of Mercy Catholic Church, Daly City, on Saturday, August 11.

The 12:30 p.m. rites were performed by Father Monahan. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Petrovsky, 763 South Mayfair avenue, Daly City. The bride is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Blake, Jr., 338 27th avenue, San Francisco.

Given in marriage by her brother, George Petrovsky, the bride wore a white satin gown with delicate pointed sleeves. Lace and pearls highlighted her bodice and her ensemble was touched off with an elbow-length veil set in place by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of carnations and white orchids.

The bride chose Joyce Navarro to act in the role of maid of honor. She wore a lavender taffeta sheath with matching overskirt. Her headpiece was of matching lavender and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Other attendants were Judy Price, Rachelle Nichols, Maryann Rogers and Phyllis O'Connor. They were attired identical to the maid of honor.

Phillip Rogers acted in the role of best man. Ushers were Dennis Stansfield, Fred Nichols, Jerry Schriener and Marvin Faulkner.

The bride's mother wore an aqua dress with a short crepe jacket. Mrs. Blake, the groom's mother, appeared in a blue suit.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held for the newlyweds at the Red Chimney in Stonestown. The bride chose a pink knit suit for her honeymoon trip to Los Angeles and Las Vegas. They will make their home at 405 Palmerest, Daly City, when they return.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Blake are both graduates of Westmoor High School. The groom is currently attending City College of San Francisco.

Glen Park Folk Dancers To Hold Monthly Party

The Glen Park Folk Dancers, sponsored by the San Francisco recreation and park department, will hold their monthly party on August 28 at Glen Park playground, Elk and Chenery streets, from 7:30 to 11 p.m.

QFI Director Honored By Refrigeration Co.

Leo A. Musso, director of merchandising and promotion for Quality Foods, Inc., has been honored by the McCray Refrigerator Co. of Indiana for "outstanding contributions to the science of frozen food merchandising and distribution."

QFI's main offices are in Colma. Leading stores are in San Mateo and South San Francisco.

Musso, a business administration graduate of University of San Francisco, received the special award at McCray's biennial convention attended by 280 distributors from all over the United States and Canada.

The 35-year-old QFI executive was a featured speaker at the three-day affair held in Fort Wayne. He received his commendation from James A. Scatena, president of Scatena York Company, one of McCray's pioneer distributors in the West.

A firm believer in the broad horizons of frozen food items in the modern diet, Musso has placed the independent QFI chain in a position of national sales leadership. QFI sells more than $2 million worth of frozen foods annually. This represents 9 per cent of total sales volume, compared with the national average of 4 per cent.

It was in recognition of this aggressive leadership and the vast amount of research and study on frozen food merchandising done by the San Francisco grocery firm—and made available to the industry—that Musso was honored at the convention, according to Scatena.

FREE COOLING Tests with newly developed fuel-per-hour meter reveal that automobile air conditioners do not increase gasoline consumption.

Daly City Youths Enroll At Davis

Two Daly City students have been admitted to the University of California at Davis for the fall semester, announced Registrar Howard B. Shontz.

The 1962 fall enrollment is expected to be nearly 4,100 in the College of Agriculture, College of Letters and Science, College of Engineering, School of Veterinary Medicine, and the graduate division. This is a 17 per cent increase over the previous year, Shontz said.

David S. Pasa, a 1962 graduate of Westmoor High School, plans to major in mathematics. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice H. Pasa of 1293 South Mayfair avenue.

Patricia M. Pepin, a dietetics major, is a recent graduate of Jefferson High School. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Pepin of 11 Theta avenue, Daly City.

Laguna Honda Home Needs Your Talent

Do you play the accordion, the guitar, the banjo or piano? You will find an appreciative audience at Laguna Honda Home. An hour of entertainment given to those who spend their lives in beds and wheel chairs will give you richer returns in personal satisfaction than you ever dreamed of.

You need not be a genius, but you will feel like one at the end of your hour. Popular music and songs of the Gay 90's are the prime favorites. Strum a guitar and croon. Pick a banjo and dance. Perhaps you yodel—they will like them all.

Men, too, are needed. Wouldn't you like to play checkers or an innocent game of cards with the men at Clarendon Hall. Just a few hours a week will be greatly appreciated.

If you will devote a little time to this worthwhile cause just call MO 4-1580 Mondays through Fridays between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. We will make an appointment to suit your convenience.

De La Salle Alumni To Hold First Meet

The new Bay Area chapter of the De La Salle alumni of Minneapolis will hold their first meeting September 9, 2 p.m. at the home of John O'Brien, 259 Solano drive, Los Altos.

Following a short meeting the alumni will have dinner at Moffet Field. Taking reservation is chairman of the event Fred Hadley, 8 Coronado avenue, Daly City.

Pink India Hawthorn; Beautiful And Tough

One of the finest shrubs in the nursery trade is the Pink India Hawthorn — Raphiolepis indica rosea. It thrives in the toughest going, with poor soil and lack of water, always maintaining its clean good looks.

In spring, the Pink India Hawthorn is a mass of delicate pink blossoms and these give way to clusters of berries which ripen to a blue-black color by late summer. Try it by the seashore or near the desert. You can't find the place that it won't do its best to please and please it usually does.

Chrysanthemums Ready To Bloom

When September comes, the gardener knows that Chrysanthemum bloom is close behind. Thus the care of recent months is about to pay off.

Members of the California Association of Nurserymen warn against dropping the program of chrysanthemum care at this point, however, for the plants still need water and if the buds are not yet showing color you can feed them once again. Be sure the plants are staked enough to support the bloom when it comes.

GI Home Loans On The Decline

"GI" home loan applications showed a decline during July, Glenn Corbett, manager of the Veterans Administration Northern California Regional Office, reported last week.

Home loan applications received by the Regional Office totaled 1,171 during the month of July, compared to 1,309 for June.

Appraisal requests for units of proposed construction were up from 1,409 in June to 1,624 in July. Appraisal requests for existing houses declined slightly from 1,034 in June to 953 in July.

Officers To Attend Police Recruit School

Harry Lax, Robert Ingbrigtson and Ed Guzman, three new Daly City policemen, will attend the San Mateo County Law Enforcement Recruit School, which opens Sept. 6 in San Mateo. They will attend the school

WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

Eighth District Legion Auxiliary Will Welcome Visitors Sept. 24

On Tuesday, September 4, in Room 314 of the War Memorial Building, Van Ness avenue and McAllister street in San Francisco, the Eighth District, American Legion Auxiliary, Department of California, will welcome the five 1962 Girls State Citizens selected by the faculty of their respective high schools to represent the eighth district at the University of California campus at Davis during the 19th California Girls State in June of this year.

The five girls will share with all members and guests the beneficial results of their experiences at Girls State. The following girls will share in the evening's program:

Irene Oleg Boutourin, a student at the Star of the Sea High School, sponsored by the Zane Irwin Unit 93. She resides at 258 12th avenue and is now a senior at the Star of the Sea. She is interested in music, reading, and hopes to study medicine with a view to becoming a doctor and receives high commendation from the school's faculty.

Anita Flynn, a senior at Mercy High School, is sponsored by Municipal Unit 429, Bataan Unit 600 and Bayview Unit 502. She has three brothers and two sisters. She is interested in cooking, playing the piano and hopes to major in languages at college with a view to working in foreign service.

Robin Walsh, sponsored by Parkside Unit 505, is a student at Lincoln High School. She enjoys playing the piano, is greatly interested in bowling and other sports and is active in school activities. She hopes to study medical science at college and enter the field of research.

Kristina Ann Klinger, sponsored by Sportsman Unit 99, Golden Gate Unit 40, Greater Mission 347 and Marina Unit 348. Her hobby is reading and writing. She is very active in all school sports and is a member of the glee club and likes acting. She plans to enter college and study for teaching history or English.

Barbara Romeo, a student at the Notre Dame des Victoires School, was sponsored by the 363rd Unit 408 and San Francisco Shipyard Unit 737. Her family consists of her parents, two brothers and a sister. She enjoys hair styling and is a pianist. She plans to enter college, then would like to travel and maybe later become a teacher.

Chairman of the evening will be Mrs. Luella Hegre, 1962 eighth district Girls State chairman, who will introduce the girls. They will present their program to the guests, then introduce their families. Also chairman of the evening will be Mrs. Charles Mersereau, eighth district musician, who will present a special music program recognizing "Music Month."

The meeting will convene at 8:30 p.m. with Mrs. Peter Lefert, eighth district president, presiding. Other distinguished guests will include Ruth Johnson, 1962 Girls State chairman for the Department of California, and officers and chairmen of the various units in the eighth district. Hostess unit for the evening will be Golden Gate Unit 40, who will serve refreshments following the program.

An interesting sidelight on the program: members of Macy's Hi-Set Club will be holding TV tune-in parties in their homes with groups of girls gathered to watch the program together.

Be sure to jot down the dates of the show and don't forget to tune in. Also let Macy's know that you enjoyed the show. We hope they will schedule more fashion shows on television—there is still moms and grandmothers, and, yes, even dads—and please, please telecast them in color.

Have you discovered "Flicks on the Telly" yet? Besides having such an intriguing title, the program is outstanding television. It is a series of full-length British films telecast every Wednesday at 9 p.m. over KQED. Scheduled for this Wednesday is "Notorious Gentleman," co-starring Rex Harrison and Li-Palmer.

B'nai B'rith Ladies Hold Rummage Sale

Skyline Chapter B'nai B'rith Women will hold their annual rummage sale Monday, October 29, at the Hall of Flowers, 9th Avenue and Lincoln Way, San Francisco, from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Many rummage items will be featured according to Mrs. Gerald Turover, chairman. Persons wishing to donate useable merchandise should call Mrs. Turover, MO 4-5717; Mrs. Gross, MO 1-1353; Mrs. Bloom, SE 1-1114; or Mrs. Wasserstein, PL 5-3130 for pick-up or information.

Proceeds will be donated to the many philanthropies of B'nai B'rith.

Cold Weather Slows Down Lawn Growth

Lawns are slowed down by the approach of colder weather and unless the gardener feeds them before this slowdown begins, he is apt to have a less than luxuriant lawn during the winter months.

September feeding greens up a lawn and helps to keep it that way. Even Bermuda lawns will resist the inevitable winter browning a bit longer when fed now, according to the California Association of Nurserymen.

St. Finn Barr's Luncheon Whist Party

A dessert luncheon and whist party will be held Friday afternoon, Sept. 7 at 12:30 at St. Finn Barr's church auditorium, Heart avenue and Edna street. Funds will benefit the new school building fund. Sponsors are by Sacred Heart Booth for the coming Oct. 5-7 festival.

the winner's circle

By GARRY NIVER

The name Cornelius F. Dempsey, Jr., doesn't mean much to the nine or 10-year-old idol-worshipping baseball fan of today. As a matter of fact, if you mentioned the San Francisco Seals to a youthful sports aspirant today, he would probably tell you all about ice hockey.

But ask the fan who was around San Francisco 10 years ago about the Seals and Cornelius Dempsey, and you might get into a conversation which would last for hours.

The name Con Dempsey is synonymous with a proud era of baseball in Northern California, when the San Francisco Seals were the toast of the Pacific Coast League.

Dempsey has since departed from the world of professional baseball, as have the Seals, but they still are revered dearly by the true Bay Area baseball aficionado.

Today, Dempsey resides in a modest home on El Dorado drive in Daly City with his pretty wife, Mary Jane, and children, Con III, Theresa and Mary Pat.

The tall, crewcut gentleman has lost none of his youthful vibrance and could easily pass for a rookie on any major league team today.

Con, in his late thirties, is a physical education and math teacher at A. P. Giannini Junior High in San Francisco.

One of the prides of his life, aside from his family, is the baseball team he coaches at A. P. Giannini.

The handsome, softspoken former PCL and major league hurler credits his baseball career with helping him gain a clear and more comprehensive perspective of both teaching and coaching.

Dempsey's philosophy in both teaching and coaching is to give every youth a chance, regardless of his capabilities. He particularly encourages the awkward boy to keep trying and his reasoning stems out of his own boyhood experiences.

"When I was a senior at Sequoia High School (Redwood City), I didn't make the Varsity team until the end of the year—and then only as a batting practice pitcher."

"My coach, Al Terrimier, told me to be patient and keep trying, and that my pitching could come around later."

As it happened, it did come around. Dempsey went to USF and starred for the Hilltoppers baseball team. In 1946, Dempsey, still a few units shy of graduation at USF, attended a San Francisco Seals try-out. Charlie Graham, Sr., talked to Dempsey and was impressed with the young man's desire to get his Bachelor of Science degree before he went into baseball.

Following graduation, Con received the try-out and was sent to Salt Lake City of the Pioneer League in 1947. His first pro start was a two-hit shutout over Boise, Idaho.

Near the end of 1947, Dempsey was called up to the Seals and stayed with them until 1951. Dempsey's big league career, though very short, was something he never regretted. He was with Pittsburgh in 1951 and later with the Philadelphia Phillies. It was there that he hurt his arm. The coaches requested that he alter his delivery from a three-quarter side-arm to overhead. Dempsey complied and ended up with bursitis of the shoulder.

The big man has never been bitter over the turn of events and considers himself fortunate to have made the major league record books. Dempsey finished his baseball career in 1953 with the Oakland Oaks of the Pacific Coast League.

Dempsey has always been the sensible type and, unlike many big league players, took the realistic attitude that his baseball career would not last forever. During the off-season he gained his teaching credential and eventually his Masters Degree in education.

This part of his life has even been more rewarding than all of the glitter of big league baseball. Con relates that one of the most pleasurable moments in his life was when his Junior High team won the San Francisco city title in 1957 over 15 other junior high schools.

The humble Daly City resident has always stressed education over everything else. He enjoys working with the youths of the area and keeps himself in shape the year 'round working with various youth activities.

This summer, Con was a member of the Northern California Baseball School, which went around and instructed youths all over the north state. During the school year he works out with the youths in his P.E. classes at Aptos.

Three weeks ago the San Francisco Giants hosted the Oldtimers Game at Candlestick and Dempsey pitched an inning against the likes of the DiMaggio brothers and many other stars of the past. Dempsey and the other ballplayers were hosted at a banquet at the Sheraton Palace, and Con files this away in his book of most memorable moments.

Dempsey, who never made the first team in high school as a ballplayer, has this advice for the young baseball hopefuls: "Never quit trying and practice your weak points instead of your strong points. The strong ones will come by themselves. Most important, put your education above everything else."

This is sound advice to any person, boy or girl, baseball or business. The successful baseball star and educator has applied this philosophy to his life, and to us it seems applicable to every life.

ON THE SIDELINES . . . SF State's Jesse Racines, the only player in the history of the Far Western Conference to make All-FWC four years running, is currently working for the Daly City Water Department.

SF sportswriter Bob Sprenger, a former Daly City resident, and Miss Joni Thomas, the 1962 yearbook editor at SF State, were wed last Saturday in Oakland.

John Suza and George Chimenti of John's Men's Shop in South SF, will give "player of the week" awards to both South SF and El Camino High Schools this year.

No-Hitters Highlight Midget Baseball

Charlie Ellis' PAL Constables just made it over one of the last hurdles on their way to the crown. They picked up a few splinters going over the Misracks club, 12-11, this week. Dan Ferretti won his sixth game of the season.

The Misracks men outthit the Constables, 16 to 11, but could not outscore them. Pat Murray collected four hits for the Constables, one a double. Lindsey Boudreau of the Constables and Franz of Misracks both hit triples. The Constables must get over the PAL Redsox next week to win the crown.

Bobby Nolan threw a no-hitter against Misracks this week as the PAL Redsox pre-valled, 1-0. He struck out 15 in the eighth-inning game. He kept Misracks from hitting a single ball out of the infield. Barry Perrone hit a triple in the last of the eighth and scored on Dan O'Donnell's slow roller. Loser Larry Chulla allowed just four hits and struck out 11 Redsox men.

The PAL Indians and Relish Bakery played a tight ball game, with the tribe coming out on top, 2-1. Tommy Belvin collected two hits and scored the winning run. Joe Salarzano and Russ Runge hit long balls for the Indians, but good defensive play stopped them from scoring. Yerby looked good for the Bakery, collecting two hits, pitching a tight game and scoring the Bakery's only run. Greg Evans started a big rally for Parkmerced with a triple in the fourth inning with the score tied at 3-3. His triple scored two runs. Eddie Nathan smashed a home run over the left fielder's head in the fifth with two on base. Nathan also had 11 batters.

Marchbanks Division
The BYA Matadors continue to lead the Marchbanks Division this week by downing Our Lady of Mercy, 2-1. Pitcher Larry Bray threw a no-hitter, whiffing 10 and walking four. OLM pitcher Spith experienced a little wildness in the first inning, then settled down to a fine game, but too late. Catcher Mike Farris knocked in both Matador runs in the first inning. Jeff Becker, OLM left-fielder, made a tremendous throw, cutting down a runner in the fourth inning.

The Holy Angels Colts came from behind in the bottom of the fifth inning to nip the PAL Giants, 3-2. Giant Mike Lieske had a shutout going for four innings. Two hits, three walks and a hit batsman amounted to three Colts runs. Colt pitcher Timmy Dillon allowed two runs in the second and then behind some fine defensive play by the rest of the Colt team, held the Giants scoreless for his third victory. Gary Sanguinetti and Timmy Dillon collected two hits each. Nene and Lemke did the same for the Giants.

The BYA Forresters had a tough time this week, losing to OLP, 14-8, yet allowing only one OLP hit, that by Mike Lofrano. Wendt and Solari could not find the plate from the mound for the Forresters. They walked 22 OLP batters. Jerry McQuaid was winning pitcher, allowing four walks and seven hits.

The Holy Angels Lions came up with a great try, barely losing to the PAL Yankees, 1-0. Both teams got only a single hit as pitcher Garibaldi of the Yanks and Lewis of the Lions sizzled the ball past the batters.

Six Teams Lead Pack In South SF Pee Wee League

The three-divided South San Francisco Pee Wee League opened its extended season last week-end with six teams vaulting to the front of the pack.

In Division I the Winston Manor Merchants turned back National Trophy, 14-1. Rich Venturini, Tim Noxin, Jack Campbell and Steve Feham provided the hitting punch, while Mike Peterson and Dave Gutierrez supplied the defense.

Gary Commick, Tom Drake, Karl Stergar and Armando Realyvasquez stood out for the Trophy nine.

The PAL Chiefs exploded for 10 runs in the sixth inning to wallop Sun Valley Dairy, 21-7. Gary Stagnaro paced the Chiefs with five hits, followed by Bill Shreve with four hits.

On defense it was Mike Davis, Mike Pariani, Art Olson, Dennis Axell and Len Costello all performing well for the victors.

Sun Valley was led by Dave Andreini, Mike McKinnon, Mike Wendt, Tom Stevens, Sam King and Steve Teshara.

In Division II action the Brentwood Markets, behind the hitting of Donny Solomon, Steve Toneyago and Ricky Stell, prevailed over the PAL Officers, 17-9. Mike Millar led the winners on defense. Good performances for the PAL Officers were turned in by Ricky Green, Tom Jones, Jeff Huston and Billy Dinsmore.

In other action, a rash of base hits by Tom Caselli, Jim Appenrodt and the Risso brothers, Al and Paul, led the Southwood Merchants to a 15-9 win over the PAL Sergeants. Steve Nash and Barry Dugan led the defense.

Gene Mackey banged out three hits for the Sergeants. Barry Marcus, Greg Booth, Bob Ekas and Russ Nicolopoulos performed well on defense.

Sir's Markets, led by the hitting of Kevin Dressler, John Dunn, Joe Majka, Tony Sinicropi, Dennis Bueller and Rick Amador, eked out a 12-8 win over Top Flavor Preserves.

Ted DePucci poled out a homer for Top Flavor to lead their attack. Rich Rago, Dave Mayer, Mike Johnson, Mike Ad-diago and Gary DeHaven also stood out for Top Flavor.

In the final game of the day, the PAL Captains tallied five times in the bottom of the tenth to come from behind and score a 15-14 decision over the PAL Private Eyes.

Fred Pusello lashed out a hit to score the winning run. Also aiding the Captain's cause were Steve Blea, Mark Thompson, Mark Trujillo and Mike Stephens.

The Eye's effort was bolstered by Mike Burns, Bruce Peterson, Dave Guard, Pat McTiernan and Tim Doyle.

PAL Tigers Annex Jr. League Title

George Pedroni's PAL Tigers again put their name on the Daly City record book as they won the Pacific Coast Division Junior Baseball League championship. They won the title last weekend by defeating the PAL Cubs, 11-3, before a good crowd at Marchbanks Park.

Al Rideau and Kimo Sherbert gave the Cub fans a few minutes of hope, but the pitching of Jim Davis and Sam Thomas dropped the ax on the Cubs. Telvis Jones collected three hits, while Sam Thomas garnered two for the Tigers. Bob Kramer's Cubs played ball all the way but the big guns of the Tigers overpowered them.

BYA Flying "A" salvaged a disastrous season with an unexpected 3-1 win over the BYA Skyline Plaza Merchants. Plaza pitcher Bernard limited Flying "A" to one hit while his teammates took six hits off Marv Smith. The Plaza could not turn the hits into scores. Grady Proctor scored two of the Flying "A" runs. Larry Landis made the play of the game with a spectacular jumping catch in left field.

Davis Leads PAL Tigers In Martinez Tournament

Daly City's PAL Tigers, led by the pitching and hitting of Jim Davis, took top honors in the 16-team Martinez Junior Baseball Tournament over the weekend.

On Saturday the locals downed the El Cerrito Rockets, 6-0, and came back on Sunday to annex the title by squeezing out an 8-5 win over St. Paul's Gaels of Richmond.

In Saturday's game, the magnificent Davis twirled a no-hitter, allowing just four walks and striking out 15 batters.

Davis was aided by a barrage of home runs contributed by his mates. DeWayne Morin blasted out a two-run homer in the second. Insurance was added when Terry Senn, Telvis Jones and Larry Black all smashed out roundtrippers in the advancing innings.

In the championship game, Davis was again the hero, coming in to pitch the locals to the win, and banging out four hits at the plate.

Daly City entered the top of the sixth trailing by 5-1. Morin started off with a single and he was followed in succession by Kimo Sherbert, Davis, Senn and Jones, all hitting safely.

When the long sixth was over, Daly City had tallied six times and had taken a commanding 7-5 lead over the East Bay nine.

Builders Cinch Title Tie; Misracks Have Only Chance

The M & S Builders, riding the strong right arm of Bruce Brian, clinched at least a tie for the Tri-City Midget League title when they won a pair of games to top the final week's action.

Brian pitched the Builders to a 2-1 win over Sun Valley Dairy Wednesday in a replay of a tie game, and then came back on Friday to hurl a 5-3 win over the PAL Sergeants.

Misracks Sporting Goods of Daly City, the only team left with a chance to catch the Builders, posted an 8-0 win over the Sunshine Garden Improvement Club to remain a half game off the pace.

Misracks will wrap up its title hopes tomorrow night against Parkview of San Bruno in a replay of their fogged-out contest.

Against Sun Valley, Brian was touched for a run in the top of the second, while his mates had to wait until the last half of the sixth to score a pair of runs and take the decision.

Bobby Collins unloaded a double to drive home the tying run, and then scored when he was forced across on a bases-loaded walk. Billy Godkin also doubled for the Builders. Brian held the Daermen to four hits.

The Builders closed out their season Friday with a 5-3 win over the PAL Sergeants. Sam Perez slammed a two-run homer, while Ron Albert and Leroy Davidson added doubles.

Molloys Wins Golf Meet At Cypress

A bartenders' tournament, represented by Molloy's, Jack's and the Hillside Club, was held Monday, August 13, at Cypress Hills Golf Course.

The Molloy's team topped the field, with a composite score of 301½. The Hillside Club was second with a 306 score.

George MacDonald fired a 69½ to top the individual field. Rich Anderson and Fred Brewster tied for second spot in the individual low gross.

Earlier in the week the Natives, again led by Mendosa, defeated the Daly City Billiards team, 9-1. Mendosa allowed the Billiards boys a meager four hits and the single run. Mike Kennedy and Julio Brasseco really gave Billiard's pitcher, Pete Garcia, a bad time with four hits each for four at-bats. John Crowhurst followed with two for three.

Trailing the Natives in second place this week is the Ye Old Firehouse team. The Firehouse was trailing Lees Pharmacy, 3-0, when Rich Hackett slammed out a home run that started a rally ending in an 11-7 victory for the Firemen. Lees' men could not cope with the bunts laid down by the Firehouse.

The Skyline Cleaners came up this week with a two-win spree. They collected wins over the tough Stumble Inn, 7-2, and Daly City Billiards, 18-6. Carl Mitchell came out of these games as hero of the week. Mitchell was called upon to take over mound duties in the absence of regular chucker McChesney. Against the Stumble Inn, Mitchell only gave up two runs and hit two for four. Teammate De Martini helped the cause with three hits in the 7-2 win. Mitchell collected three for six at the plate in his 18-6 win over Daly City Billiards. Teammate Glass hit five for six and centerfielder Lopez four for six.

St. Clair's Liquors took a forfeit game from Rex Green Plumbing. Rex Green did not have nine men by the third inning.

Daly City Drugs took a 15-1

Brian fanned 11 in going the distance.

Against Sunshina Gardens, Misracks' Bob Hildenbager pitched a one-hit shutout and led the hitters with three-for-three. Bob Perkoff and Ed Schweitzer both added doubles to the winning cause.

The San Bruno Merchants clinched at least a tie for fourth with a 10-3 win over the Winston Seals and will close their season Friday night with a make-up game against Parkview.

Craig Friar, PAL Officers, and Jim Skuza, PAL Detectives, locked horns in a pitchers' battle as the two clubs battled to a 0-0 tie. Sun Valley closed its season with a win over Parkview to round out the Midget loop play.

Art Colvin Nine Takes Two Wins

Art Colvin BYA came up with a pair of wins this week, downing league-leading South Sunset, 1-0, and dropping Silver Terrace, 2-0.

Ron Stefani came up with a no-hit shutout game. Joe Dutto gave up a single hit for Silver Terrace. The difference was in support. John Heick and Greg Brenk each cut down runners with good defensive plays. Lee Williams gave an exhibition of heads-up baserunning as he scored both BYA runs, taking advantage of every opportunity given him by Silver Terrace.

In other action Misracks defeated Silver Terrace, 8-0. Denny Owens' ko'd 15 batters. Bobby Patterson returned to the Misracks lineup this week and collected two hits. South Sunset defeated Parkmerced, 5-3, in a game that is under protest on a technicality.

Pt. Reyes National Seashore Park To Be Preserved

The Senate will accept very little amendment to the Point Reyes National Seashore Bill, United States Senator Thomas H. Kuchel of California predicted yesterday.

He added that final action in Congress and White House approval is a sure thing in a few days.

"The bill will preserve 53,000 acres of historic scenic beauty, stretching along 72 miles of Pacific shoreline in Marin County, for enjoyment by all the people and not spoiled by a selfish few."

The minor House changes assure persons residing on the land to be embraced in the Park of being able to stay there for 50 years, and eliminate a Senate exemption for a 16-acre tract, known as Duck Cove, from the bill.

"In preserving this exceedingly attractive stretch of beach and upland for all time, we are assuring those living there—and notably the people carrying on dairying and ranching—of continued opportunity to enjoy their properties," Kuchel said.

The bill authorizes a $14,000,000 acquisition program which includes land at historic Drake's Bay.

"We perpetuate these charming forested uplands, pastoral countryside, and sandy beaches against defacement for countless generations, as well as for all those now desirous of taking advantage of the recreational and scenic appeal of this unique terrain," Kuchel said.

"As is the case elsewhere, desirable, attractive stretches of coastline are being fenced off from the mushrooming populations in our metropolitan areas. Even while the Point Reyes Park project was being studied, bulldozers were moving in and tree-cutting destroyed some of the beauties.

"Lying practically at the end of the Golden Gate Bridge, Point Reyes seashore is bound to attract tremendous numbers. By the year 2000 it is estimated 12,000,000 persons will be residing within comfortable driving distance of this gorgeous section, with an infinite variety of interesting attractions. Subsequent generations fortunately now will be able to see some of the sights which Sir Francis Drake and the earliest settlers found so enchanting."

Understudies many times attain as much — or more — success than the people who played ahead of them in sports.

Bob Garibaldi, the Giants' financially comfortable young right-hander, cites the case of his former substitute in football and baseball at Stagg High School in Stockton.

He's Don Cook, who was a sophomore quarterback and pitcher behind Garibaldi when Big Bob was making All-America headlines as a prep QB and pitcher.

"Don's a terrific athlete," Garibaldi comments ... and it doesn't stop there. He's a fine student, too," Bob declares.

According to Garibaldi, Cook has broken most of his passing records at Stagg, including total touchdowns and completion percentage. Cook threw 12 TD strikes and hit on 58 per cent of his passes.

Cook followed in Garibaldi's footsteps last July when he was named QB for the North Shrine football team. Garibaldi quarterbacked the North two years ago.

Then to top it all off, Cook boasted a 7-0 pitching record for Stagg last spring and was also the team's top hitter with a .465 average.

Cook, unlike Garibaldi, will not go to Santa Clara. It's Stanford for this young man.

Talking about Garibaldi, one Giant dressing room observer told the likeable ex-Bronco athlete: "Kid ... you could have played any of three sports (football, baseball and basketball) on a major league level."

With uncertainty in his voice, Garibaldi replied: "I hope I picked the right one."

Jack Sanford, hard-nosed righthander for the Giants couldn't help but crack a smile (of all things) when his old teammate and buddy on the Phillies, Richie Ashburn, pulled a cute stunt while batting against Jack at Candlestick. Ashburn, now belting 'em for the Mets, fouled off a Sanford pitch a few feet from home plate. Catcher Tom Haller hustled out for the ball during the extremely tight game, only to find that Richie had beaten him to the hide and had fired it back to the mound. Sanford quipped later that Richie's always clowning around when they face each other. "You'd a thought he was playin' two-a-cat," says Jack.

Sanford admits that beating the Mets is like beating a triple-A team. But he's still mighty proud of the way he handles Frank Thomas. The big slugger can't buy a hit off Jack. "I've been getting him out ever since he played for Tallahassee ... and he's been saying I'm lucky," Sanford concludes. "I've been lucky against him the past eight years."

Things Change in a Hurry Department: Dodger Tommy Davis connected for base hits ten out of the first 13 times he faced Billy O'Dell this year. But O'Dell slammed the door shut on Tommy (0 for 5) during the Giants three-game sweep here. ... Charlie Hiller, Giant second baseman, hit .500 against Dodger pitching until the last series. Then he connected for a puny .100 in three games. ... New York journalist Joe King reports that Art Mahaffey of the Phillies could become only the sixth pitcher in National League history to win 20 games for a second division ball club. Two of the men to accomplish this feat were Bill Voiselle (1944) and Johnny Antonelli (1956). Both Giants were on fifth place finishers.

Chit-Chat: Orlando Cepeda carries his conversations a bit too far at first base. The Giant slugger conducts the "Geneva Conference" with practically every man who reaches base for the enemy. ... Met pilot Casey Stengel cracked to this reporter after the Mets lost to the Giants after a victory the night before, "that loss ended our 12th one-game winning streak." ... Dodger pitcher Don Drysdale and ex-Dodger Don Newcombe are co-owners of the home run record for National League pitchers in one season. Each blasted seven. ... Maury Wills is a great base stealer, granted. But Ty Cobb must have rolled over in his grave everytime Maury steals a base when the Dodgers are five runs ahead, and a stolen base is needed like a hole in the head.

SF Semi-Pro Grid Team Holds Open Try-Outs At GGP

The San Francisco Ramblers, the top Bay Area semi-pro football team, will hold their try-outs this Saturday, 12 noon, at the polo grounds in Golden Gate Park.

The try-outs are open to everyone. Assistant coach Sammy Friedman says the only equipment required at this time are football shoes and sweat clothes. The Ramblers' first game will be a scrimmage against the University of Santa Clara on September 15.

Pedro Valley Church Beats Presbytery

In the top game of the week the league-leading Pedro Valley Presbyterian Church team managed to fight off a determined effort by the Presbytery squad to gather in an 8-6 victory. It was close all the way until Russell nion put the winners in front with a long three-run homer.

The results of other games found several teams still in the battle for second place. The Mill Lords downed the First Baptist Church of Linda Mar by 11-5, and the Laguna Salada School District bested the Presbytery club, 11-8.

BCRA MIDGET RACES SEPT. 3

"Dynamite Mike" McGreevy of Oakland, who has zoomed into the current point lead in the Bay Cities Racing Association midget race car division, will lead the midget pilots in their first program on Alviso Speedway's quarter-mile dirt oval the night of Labor Day, September 3.

McGreevy has been the hottest driver in BCRA midget competition in Sacramento in recent weeks, taking over the lead from last year's top driver, Chuck Booth, of Sacramento.

The "mighty midgets," including Offenhausen, Forde, Falcons and several specially-built machines, will run a full program at the Alviso track, located in the city of Alviso, just off the Milpitas-Sunnyvale highway.

The main event will start 18 of the fastest qualifiers for 30 laps. Qualifying trials will start at 7:30 o'clock and the trophy dash at 8:15, followed by heat races and the semi-main event. The admission price for adults will be $1.75.

Fans and drivers alike have clamored for the midget races on the Alviso turf with its tight turns and salt-packed surface which has won the track the reputation of "fastest dirt track in the west." BCRA officials agreed to the program and all top California drivers are expected to participate.

Mrs. Brymer Wins Cypress Tourney

Mrs. Thomas Brymer toured the Cypress Hills fairways in a net 68 last Thursday to take the low honors in the Class "A" Women's Division of the Cypress Golf Club's Blind-Hole Tournament.

Mrs. William Aragona and Mrs. A. K. Proctor tied for the runner-up spot with net 71s.

In the Class "B" Division, Mrs. H. B. Leineweber fired a net 77 for top spot. Mrs. S. K. Stanger was second with a net 83.

Indians Meet Toughies

The Stanford University football team will meet the tough University of Minnesota and University of Illinois in their 1962 grid season. Both games will be away from home.

Dick Norman (1958-60) is Stanford's all-time quarterback. Norman completed 323 passes for 3,737 yards during his three year stint on the Indian grid eleven.

WESTLAKE SCHOOL'S spacious athletic field is the scene of both baseball and football games these summer days under the reation department.

Football Signifies Finish Of DC Summer Rec Program

(This is the seventh and final article on the recreation facilities provided by the City of Daly City.)

By GARRY NIVER

The first signs of autumn have invaded Daly City, hurrying to shove out what slight vestiges of summer have appeared to date.

A brisk breeze pushes the fluffy white fog out of its ocean home and brings it down into Daly City, hissing its uncomfortable breath on the passers-by.

The bite in the air, along with the first of falling leaves, signifies the first entrance of autumn, coming not far away.

The official pastime of the cool September-October days has already arrived in Daly City. Last Wednesday at the spacious Westlake School playground, located at Lake Vista and Fieldcrest avenues, the season's first touch football game got under way.

BOB VANNUCCI

The majority of the youths at Westlake School, with the exception of a few die-hards over in the corner playing softball, threw down their baseball mitts and picked up the pigskin.

Husky Bob Vannucci, the playground director at Westlake School, had his hands full calming the over-zealous gridders and keeping them in order.

Vannucci, who is a math major at San Francisco State, watched as the hardtop courts with their basketball, kickball and dodgeball emptied.

The large grass area at Westlake School soon was a bustle of grid activity. Vannucci and Ed Tomasello, supervisor of recreation for Daly City, knew that the summer program was drawing to a close.

Tomorrow is the final day of recreation in the summer program. Most of the youthful directors will be packing their bags and heading off for college.

It's SPARE TIME

at Westlake Bowl

By JIM GREALISH

Joe Servetto became the latest high roller in the Westlake Classic League as he led the pack last Wednesday with a big 245 game and 606 series. Others knocking over the pins in the league were Ted Wittke with a 240 game and 593 series and Don Maleck with 202 and 592 series.

It was all in the family in the Ball and Chain Mixed Fives as Pat Fisher led the men with a 182 game and 520 series while mother-in-law Jean Lunghi led the ladies with 157 and 432.

Another Westlaker on the comeback trail is Bob Campodonia in the Sleepers League. Bob shot a 200 game and 579 series to lead the league, while Lee Franzola placed second with a 256 game and 548 series.

All Westlake bowlers wish a speedy recovery to Tess Merlo, who is temporarily confined to Children's Hospital.

"Remember a Forgotten Child" is the theme of the charity bowling tournament now in progress in 13 bowling centers in the San Francisco Bay area. Co-sponsored by the Air Retarded Children and San Francisco Bowling Proprietors' Association, the tournament will offer many valuable prizes. Closing date is September 16.

Miss Lee Baldelli, who placed second in the Miss 300 contest, will be Westlake Bowling Queen during the tournament.

Secretary Lou Tosti took time out from keeping records of the Marche Club League to shoot a 199 game and 548 series.

"Mr. Music Man" of Westlake, Angie Ferrigno, proved to be as competent with a bowling ball as with a saxophone as he shot a 215 game and 809 series in the 540 Professional Scoring Trio League. "Old Pros" Fred Von Husen and Bill Greer were the league leaders as Fred had 237 and 855 while Bill shot 222 and 825 in the four game loop.

Herb Carr carried the ball in B'nai B'rith League as he posted a 214 game and 539 series.

Pete Tobin continues on his high rolling streak, this time with a 214 game and 589 series in the Monday Mixed League as Helen Vincent led the ladies with 218 and 554.

Ed Morris had anything but a summer slump Monday night as he registered a tremendous 686 series in the 805 Scratch League. Starting with a big 232 game, he shot a 198 middle game then finished with a terrific 256 effort. Even Bob McNeilly smiled as Ed finished his series.

Westlake bowlers are collecting their old bowling shirts in preparation for the week of November 18-25 when the bowling centers of the San Francisco area will serve as collection depots for the Bishops' Relief Drive. Old bowling shirts and shoes will be collected at the various centers then packed and shipped to ports for shipment and distribution overseas to needy persons regardless of race, color or creed.

Daly City Summer Recreation Program Draws To A Close

As many people have said down through the years, "All good things must come to an end." Tomorrow is the last day of the Daly City 1962 Summer Recreation Program.

It has been one of the most successful summers in the annals of local recreation history. The youngsters experienced many old and new activities under the guidance and supervision of the highly qualified recreation leaders at 19 playground sites and centers. Hundreds of boys and girls participated in weekly special events and playground activities which gave particular attention to supervised fun and organized experiences.

But the recreation supervisors realize that a program cannot rest on past glory. Therefore, plans are already in the making for a greater 1963 summer program.

With the completion of the summer program, all school recreational playgrounds will remain open until the beginning of the fall program. It is necessary to close all school facilities in order that maintenance personnel may prepare the buildings and grounds for opening of the new school year.

The following recreational sites will remain open during the intermediate period, August 25 to September 8:

Marchbanks Park, Lincoln Park, Frankfort Park, Westlake Park and War Memorial Community Center.

The hours of supervision at these five sites will be 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., Mondays through Fridays. Marchbanks and Westlake Parks will also remain open on weekends from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The War Memorial Community Center will be open in the evenings from 7 to 9:30, Monday through Friday.

Destruction Derby Moves To San Jose Speedway

Entries in the auto destruction derby Sunday night, September 2, at San Jose Speedway will include winners of a recent similar event in Pleasanton, according to Bob Barkhimer, speedway manager.

Winners of the Alameda County Fair even, which attracted 3,200 fans, include Dick West of San Jose, George Payton of San Francisco and Don Thomas of San Mateo.

The coming San Jose event will feature drivers in teams of four smashing old cars together until just one machine remains running. Prize money of $1,200 will be divided $700 for first place team, $400 second, and $100 third.

Action at San Jose, on the eve of the Labor Day holiday, will be under NASCAR sanction with standard destruction derby rules and with safety precautions. Four periods of 15 minutes each are split by intermissions during which drivers can repair cars for later return to action.

Some 60 cars and drivers are expected to enter the competition, Barkhimer said, on the basis of advance entries.

Membership in NASCAR is not a requirement and application forms and rules may be secured by contacting the NASCAR office, 2032 North Pacific avenue, Santa Cruz, phone GA 6-3210.

Rules call for usual safety precautions in preparing cars for the destruction event, plus payment of $2.50 insurance fee. While man yrace drivers enter the competition, non-professionals or part-time drivers have won at least six events, Barkhimer stated. Decisions of officials are final and at least six officials and judges are assigned by NASCAR to each derby.

pin short on series total with a 578 effort.

Tuesday night was "Ladies' Night" at Westlake as Verle Dillon was high scorer for both sexes with her big 596 series in the Ladies' 640 Scratch League. She had plenty of rooters as she tried desperately to hit the 600 mark.

Another "comeback kid" made his appearance Tuesday night as Ernie Spencer found the range again with a 213 game and 588 series.

August 29 will be Westlake Bowl Day at the California State Fair as six local bowlers will be competing on the specially constructed Brunswick lanes on the fair grounds.

Edith Bonelli and Peg Miller placed one-two in the final day's sweepstakes of the Tuesday Trio.

Westlake bowlers are flocking to the Mission Bowl this weekend to shoot in the second Scratch League beat Roy's annual Summer Singles with game by one pin but fell six

Scholar Visits Strange Island

On the little island of St. Barts in the Caribbean is an isolated community of Frenchmen who live in almost precisely the same way as their ancestors, peasants and fishermen from Normandy, who settled there more than three centuries ago. Professor Ernst Ekman of the University of California, Riverside, has returned from studying them at first hand.

This cultural study, financed by the Office of Naval Research, was incidental to Dr. Ekman's major project, a book on the Swedish occupation of the island from 1785 to 1878. The Swedes bought it from France and sold it back. While under Swedish ownership, the island, a free port, was a haven for pirates and privateers. But during this entire period of its turbulent history, the Frenchmen, who had been sent there as colonists in the 1650's, lived their lives as they had in the past, and as they do today.

Dr. Ekman believes this group is unique in the tropics since there has been almost no intermixture with the Negroes, who greatly outnumber the whites throughout the Caribbean. He explains this situation in part by the fact that on St. Barts French is still spoken, whereas the Negroes there have typically spoken English. Furthermore, the Frenchmen are Catholics, whereas most of the Negroes were formerly Protestants. But basically, he says, the Frenchmen are aloof and extreme conservative. Many of the women still wear 17th century style Norman French bonnets, and the men wear wide-brimmed straw hats. They work hard, farming the arid land and fishing.

Writing a definitive study of this culture now is highly important, Dr. Ekman says, because the pattern is breaking up. In recent years, young people have begun to emigrate to St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands, where there is another French colony. Many of them are staying to make money from the influx of American tourists. It is only a matter of time before St. Barts, too, will be modernized. An electric generator was installed in Gustavia, the capital, within the past year, and a few of the people already have electric lights.

NAVY TRACT BIDS MADE

Congressman J. Arthur Younger has notified Mayor Maurice Hamilton of San Bruno that the General Services Administration has rejected the bid of Robert F. Wagner, Los Angeles, for 63 acres of surplus Navy property, if the bid is contingent on favorable zoning by the San Bruno city council.

Simultaneously, however, the GSA advised Younger that they would accept Wagner's bid of $1,600,000 for the property if it contained no contingencies and represented a clear cash offer for the property.

Younger worked through federal agencies for two years to get the property released by the Navy in an effort to get it back on the San Bruno and San Mateo County tax roles as an aid to local economy and benefit for local taxpayers.

Wagner's reaction to the GSA proposal was not immediately available. In the meantime, state highway officials let it be known that until the exact location of Route 229 from the Bayshore Highway through to Pacifica is known, they can not give assurance that the Navy tract will not be split through the middle, virtually creating two distinct parcels of property.

The successful bidder would have to contend with this situation which was not mentioned in the GSA description of the property.

MEXICAN INDEPENDENCE DAY FETE SET

September 15 marks another Independence Day celebration for Mexico. More than 100,000 Mexicans in the San Francisco Bay area will observe this national holiday during a three-hour long music and civic program which will be held in front of the San Francisco city hall on September 15 from 8 p.m. until after 11 p.m.

Mexico's president, Lic. Adolfo Lopez Mateos, will send his personal representative, who will give the "Grito" (Cry of Independence) at exactly 11 p.m. from Mayor Christopher's balcony in front of a congregation of Mexicans and guests, which will run well over 5,000.

This yearly event, the fourth in San Francisco held in front of the city hall, will feature special dancers and entertainers sent from Mexico by the president's representative and various governors from the Republic of Mexico.

In addition, local talent groups will perform, and beautiful costumes will be displayed. Besides mariachis (Mexican musicians) other musical groups and the San Francisco Municipal band will perform.

The entire program is organized and presented by the Committee (Comite Mexicano Civico Patriotico).

The entire program will be broadcast on a remote from the stage for all Mexicans who live in northern California and are unable to attend the festi-ties. The broadcast will begin at 8 p.m. and will be transmitted by radio station KLOK (1170 KC), the international station for the San Francisco Bay area.

On September 16, at 10 a.m., the city of San Francisco will receive, through Mayor George Christopher, a 23-foot monument and statue of Don Miguel Hidalgo Y Costilla (Mexico's George Washington).

The consul general of Mexico, Adolfo G. Dominguez, estimates that by the completion of the installation and transportation of the statue, the Mexican government would have paid out well over $30,000, more than a quarter million pesos.

A solemn, but colorful ceremony, will be held that morning at Mission Dolores Park. The representatives of the Mexican government (the president's personal envoy), the architect and sculptor, the consul general of Mexico in San Francisco, members of the Comite Mexicano Civico Patriotico, the consular corps, "charros" (Mexican cowboys) with horses and thousands of Mexicans and guests are expected to participate in this great event.

These ceremonies will also be broadcast by either radio station KLOK or station KOFY.

New Book Probes Violent Gangs

"Violence for kicks" is the status symbol of the loosely-structured homicidal teen-age gangs, according to UCLA sociologist Dr. Lewis Yablonsky, one of the nation's leading authorities on delinquency.

In a new book, "The Violent Gang," Dr. Yablonsky probes the social psychological structure of the gangs which have terrorized New York and other large cities with "rumblings" and senseless killings.

The book has just been published by the MacMillan Company of New York. It is based upon hundreds of interviews in the author's office and on the streets during four years of work with violent gangs.

The following quote from a 14-year-old boy who participated in a fatal attack on a crippled youth in New York illustrates the nature of the violence:

"If I would of got the knife, I would have stabbed him. That would have gave me more of a build-up. People would have respected me for what I've done and things like that. They would say, 'There goes a cold killer'."

These gangs seldom have a clearly defined function, Dr. Yablonsky notes. They have a constantly shifting membership with limited definition of what membership really entails.

Gang leaders are usually self-appointed and frequently change with the situation. Leaders are psychopathic youths who attempt to gather a large group around them to compensate for their personal feelings of inadequacy.

Gang fights are seldom "two structured teen-age armies on a battlefield," he says. They are usually mob actions. Participants have limited feelings of belonging to any gang and are usually a gathering of individuals looking for excitement—a situation in which they can act out their hostilities.

County Tax Cut, Library Rate Jumps

"A penny saved is a penny earned," so the old adage goes. However, this is not the case with the San Mateo County taxpayer this year.

The penny saved on the 1962-63 basic tax-rate will be offset by a near one-cent boost in the county free library district, County Manager E. R. Stallings announced this week.

The 1962-63 tax rate, set by the board of supervisors last night, is $1.6112 for each $100 of assessed valuation—one cent lower than the 1961-62 rate. This marks the fourth straight year that the San Mateo County tax rate has been reduced.

On the contrary side, Stallings said the library district rate will be raised to $0.084 to a total of $0.1649.

Stallings had earlier announced that San Mateo County residents could expect a two-cent cut, but an unexpected reconditioning of the county courthouse in Redwood City shaved the extra cost.

The board voted to budget $70,000 for the courthouse after a bond issue for the expansion of the Hall of Justice was turned down in the June primary election.

"A one-cent reduction is better than nothing at all," Stallings said. "It wasn't easy to come by. Most other jurisdictions are either raising their rates or staying the same this year," he said.

DC Mexican-American Assn. Endorses Proposition 23

Proposition 23 for State Senate Reapportionment was unanimously endorsed by the Mexican-American Political Association at its statewide convention, August 11, in Los Angeles.

"The Mexican-American Political Association represents a statewide cross-section of labor, business and the professions, including political leaders," explained President Julius Castellan of Daly City.

"The State Senate, under the present system, has become the graveyard of legislation that would have benefited the working people of California, minorities and unions," Castellan said.

"As Mexican-Americans, we are proud of our California heritage and of the freedoms guaranteed us by the Constitution of the United States and by the original State Constitution of California.

"The present apportionment of the State Senate of California, which went into effect in 1931, does not carry out the basic principle of equitable representation," the statement concluded. "Therefore, MAPA has unanimously endorsed Proposition 23 for State Senate Reapportionment. We will work for its passage in November."

Other MAPA officers, elected at the convention, are secretary Leo Lopez of Pittsburg, treasurer, Judge Leopoldo Sanchez of Los Angeles; northern director, Louis Negrete of Oakland; southern director, Frank Casado of Los Angeles, and vice-director, Frank Munoz of La Puente.

Tax Cut Might Reduce Deficit

A tax cut at present would not only release the "tax brake" holding back business development but would likely reduce the deficit in federal government operations.

This is the view of Dr. J. Fred Weston, professor of business economics at UCLA, who recently testified before the Joint Economic Committee of the U. S. House and Senate on taxes and the nation's economy.

Both the corporate and personal income tax rates were increased substantially during the Korean War to curb inflationary tendencies at that time, and these tax rates have never been reduced, Dr. Weston points out.

"As a consequence, since the heavy inflationary pressures have subsided in recent years, the fiscal structure now actually inhibits the normal growth of the economy," Dr. Weston says.

"The current upswing is beginning to taper off with the economy significantly short of its full employment potential, and it now realized that our heavy tax structure has been a brake on normal recoveries in the last several upswings. Reductions in taxes are needed, not simply to prevent downturns of the economy, but to help tilt the growth rate up toward its potential."

"The experience of the 1957-58 recession particularly emphasized that a reduction in taxes, by taking the brake off economic recovery, will bring in more revenues," the economist declares. "Tax cuts will result in no deficits or in smaller deficits than would be the case if no tax cuts are made and the economy does not achieve its normal recovery."

Dominican Convent Funds Campaign

Sister M. John Martin and Sister M. Terence of the Dominican Sisters of Mission San Jose, are practicing pitching horseshoes for the Barbecue Festival, which will feature games to raise money for a building fund. The event will be held on the grounds of the Motherhouse in Mission San Jose, on Sunday, August 26. Three thousand friends of the Sisters are expected to attend. Admission is free.

The goal of this project is to raise $10,000 as a first payment on a million dollar building program. The large increase in candidate enrollments urgently requires the erection of new postulant, novitiate and priory buildings before February 1964.

A large committee of boosters and organizations from the East Bay, San Francisco and the Peninsula are assisting Postmaster John Connolly of San Lorenzo and Postmaster John F. Fica of San Francisco, who are acting as co-chairmen. The sister pitching the horseshoe is the daughter of Postmaster Connolly and the onlooker is the daughter of Postmaster Fica.

A barbecue steak dinner with all the trimmings will be served for $2 for adults and $1 for children. The Festival and Barbecue will start at noon on August 26, and continue until dark. The Dominican Motherhouse is located immediately to the rear of the historic Mission San Jose, which is located near Irvington off the Nimitz Freeway.

tember 23. "K. O. Polio" stations will be set up in all Bay area neighborhoods by the Bay Area Medical Association Committee, made up of physicians in Alameda, Contra Costa, San Mateo, San Francisco, Marin and Santa Clara counties. There are no shots to take—just three drops of Sabin vaccine on a lump of sugar.

State To Increase Blind, Aged Pay

A two-stage increase in aid payments for California's aged and blind is expected to be put into effect by the State Social Welfare Board at its meeting Friday, August 24, in San Luis Obispo. The meeting will be held in the Veterans Memorial Building, 801 Grand avenue, at 10 a.m.

The board's action will pave the way for the following boosts in public assistance grants:

Aged—$4 per month increase for the state's 254,000 recipients of Old Age Assistance, effective October 1, followed by another $1 cost-of-living increase effective December 1.

Blind—$4 per month increase for the state's 13,000 Aid to Needy Blind recipients, effective October, followed by another $2 monthly cost-of-living increase, effective December 1.

The October 1 increases stem from recent federal legislation hiking aid payments for the aged and blind $4 per month. State law provides for these federal increases to be passed on directly to the recipient.

The December 1 increases are cost-of-living adjustments which the 1961 legislature empowered the State Social Welfare Board to make annually. The board proposes to establish June as the base month for future determinations of cost-of-living changes.

New Daly City Rabbi To Be Installed Fri.

Rabbi Herbert Morris, new spiritual leader of Temple Judea, will be installed at Installation Services to be held Friday, August 24 at 8:30 p.m. at Temple Methodist Church, 19th Avenue and Junipero Serra.

Rabbi Joseph Glaser of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations will install Rabbi Morris.

Rabbi Morris joins with Temple Judea in its plans for its new Temple to be located on Brotherhood Way in San Francisco.

Those participating in the Installation Service will be as follows: Rabbi Meyer Heller, president of the board of rabbis; Rabbi Joseph Gitin, president of the Western Association of Reform Rabbis; Rabbi Alfred Gottschalk, dean, Hebrew Union College, Jewish Institute of Religion in Los Angeles; Cantor Harold Wachter, administrator, Congregation Judea; Mr. Hillard Goldstein, president, Congregation Judea; Mr. Max Rudofsky, past president, Congregation Judea; Mr. L. K. Whitfield, Minister, Temple Methodist Church.

Members of Temple Methodist Church have been invited to attend and to participate in this Installation Service.

Fellowship Baptist Church Holds Late Summer Concert

The Building Fund Committee of Fellowship Baptist Church will hold a unique and thrilling "Late Summer Concert," Saturday, August 25, at 8:30 p.m. at the Veterans Memorial Auditorium, Van Ness avenue and McAllister street, San Francisco.

In addition to the 30-voice choral ensemble, which will offer works of Bach, Schubert, Palestrina and others, there will be a "Sacred Rhythmic Choir" interpreting Noble Cain's arrangement of "Go Down, Moses" and other works.

Advance tickets may be secured by calling JU 5-5346 or JU 4-2435.

Goodwill Ind. Help Handicapped Kids

Four handicapped teenagers who started work at Goodwill Industries early last month (Monday, July 2) have done so well that Goodwill's program to provide part-time employment for students will be expanded.

The program, originated by Rose Resnick, sightless founder of The California League for the Handicapped, is designed to help disabled youngsters develop and discover their employment potentials before finishing school. Real work conditions, from punching a time clock to learning to get along with 275 adult Goodwill workers, will make the transition from school to industry simpler.

Initially, the three boys and one girl were taken on a tour of the five-story Goodwill plant and allowed to choose where they would work. One boy asked to be put in the furniture department, where he is learning carpentry. Two others expressed a desire to repair small electrical appliances. The lone girl "loves pretty clothes" and is presently pricing merchandise to be sold at a Goodwill store.

The youngest, 15-year-old Dick, whose only disability is alexia (the inability to learn to read or write) has become so proficient in sanding and refinishing that not enough wooden furniture is being donated to Goodwill to keep him busy during the entire summer vacation. Particularly needed are chests, bookcases and tables. To complete the training of the other two boys, toasters, radios and coffee urns are needed.

Disabled students who wish to file applications for after-school jobs may write Rose Resnick, The California League for the Handicapped, 1170 Bush street, or telephone PRospect 5-4321.

Those wishing to donate materials for the program may call DOuglas 2-0779 for a pickup truck.

An organizational meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pava on August 13 for the purpose of forming a Conservative Jewish Congregation in the Westlake area.

Sabbath services are one of the group's future plans. In addition, children's religious services and Sunday School instruction will also be held.

There will be a meeting at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, September 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kline, 92 Oceanside drive, Daly City.

If you would like to attend this meeting, or for further information, call PL 6-3968 or PL 5-9435.

CHILD SPINAL DISTORTION IS WIDESPREAD

A South San Francisco spine specialist said this week that an examination of a youngster's backbone may help to determine his future occupation.

Dr. Anthony F. Lally of the Peninsula Chiropractic Center explained that more than 60 per cent of the nation's school children have spinal distortions and that such students should be encouraged to work with their brains and not their backs. He added that many spinal defects can be corrected without difficulty if discovered early.

As part of a nationwide public service program, under the sponsorship of the International Chiropractors Association, students from kindergarten through high school are being given spinal examinations without charge. Parents may make appointments for their children by telephoning the Peninsula Chiropractic Center, JU 9-4985. Youngsters not yet in high school must be accompanied by a parent.

Dr. Lally said a shock to the body from a fall sometimes pushes the spine out of line slightly. He added that such a distortion can interfere with normal body function when vital nerves are pinched.

"Poor posture is another widespread cause of spinal misalignment," he added.

He said the most common defect found among students in the last year's spinal check-up was a scoliosis, a curvature which caused the youngster to have an unbalanced posture to the left or right.

CHURCH EVENTS

Choir To Conduct Presbyterian Rites

Members of the adult choir of the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church in Colma will conduct the 10 a.m. worship service this Sunday, August 19. While Rev. Herbert Tweedie is on vacation during August, church departments are sponsoring the services. The Rev. Mr. Tweedie returns to the pulpit September 2.

DELMAR SEVERY, Director of Music, Broadmoor Presbyterian Church

Participating in the service are Delmar Severy, director of music at the 87th Street Church; Ken Gillespie, Dorothy Spratt and Jean Amick. The message of the morning, "Music As An Aid to Worship," will be presented by Mr. Gillespie, an ordained elder and choir member for ten years.

Special anthems, responses, and solo music will add emphasis to the choir's sponsorship of the day.

Four choirs, with approximately 60 members, provide music at Broadmoor Presbyterian, the pre-school Cherubs, the Junior and Youth choirs, and the adult choir.

The Cherubs are directed by Dorothy Spratt, and accompanied by Lynn Jones. Delmar Severy conducts the other three choirs, with Gloria Mattson as church organist.

Regular soloists are: Kay Mattson, Lee Johnson and Jean Amick, sopranos; Shirley Pappas and Dorothy Spratt, contraltos; Ken Gillespie, tenor; Del Severy, baritone.

The Broadmoor choir frequently participates in choral festivals in this area, and provides music for the Protestant services at Fort Miley veterans hospital on a quarterly basis.

At Christmas time, the choir videotape holiday music for television broadcasting over station KPIX.

Director Severy is a San Francisco junior high school music teacher, and a past president of the San Francisco Choral Conductors' Guild. During the 50th anniversary celebration of Daly City, he assembled and conducted the festival choir of 100 voices.

Within the adult choir there is a musical comedy group, under the direction of Ken Gillespie, which presents entertainment for church social functions.

Sunday, September 9, will be the final summer schedule service at Broadmoor Presbyterian. On the following Sunday, the church returns to its normal schedule, with two services, at 9:30 and 11 a.m. There is Sunday school for all ages, and nursery care is provided for infants.

Judea Religious School Classes Being Filled

Congregation Judea urges parents who have not registered their children for Religious School to do so immediately, as classes are being filled and are rapidly reaching capacity.

Rabbi Herbert Morris, together with Allan Blumenfeld, director of education and a highly competent faculty will supervise curriculum in conjunction with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations.

Classes start Sunday, September 16. Deadline for enrollment is Monday, September 10.

Children of pre-kindergarten age (one year prior to entering public school) through post-confirmation are eligible for the Sunday School.

Hebrew School classes, in addition to offering Conversational Hebrew, are preparatory to Bar and Bas Mitzvah. Membership in Temple Judea includes private lessons for Bar and Bas Mitzvah, given by Cantor Harold Wachter. Those interested in enrolling their children may call Temple Judea, PL 5-6362 or write Temple Judea, 95 So. Mayfair ave., Daly City.

SM Senior Citizens Hear About KO Polio

People over 40 may not contract polio as frequently as youngsters, but like everyone, they can carry the disease to others — especially to their grandchildren.

However, the coming Bay Area "K. O. POLIO" campaign can end that threat forever, some 300 San Mateo County senior citizens learned recently at a picnic in Woodside.

Dr. Edward A. Barthold of Menlo Park told them the new, dramatically effective Sabin oral polio vaccine not only immunizes against the disease but also prevents spread of the virus to others. Previously used Salk vaccine does not prevent transmission from person to person.

The tasteless vaccine, taken with a lump of sugar, will be given to all San Mateo, Santa Clara, San Francisco, Alameda, Contra Costa and Marin County residents in three doses on September 23, November 4 and December 9 at conveniently located neighborhood vaccine centers.

CHARLES MITCHELL, left, Barthold discusses ways senior citizens can aid the "K.O. Polio" drive. Barthold is senior man of the "K.O. Polio" drive. Barthold is senior man of the "K.O. Polio" drive.

By ARTEMUS BIERCE

In this day and age, it seems that it is getting more and more difficult to stay on the thin line of sanity.

The growing tension between the clash of ideologists between the East and West has mounted, displacing a little more of what remaining sanity we have left.

To further the tension, splinter groups with conflicting philosophies have developed here in the United States which add to the burden of trying to find our identity. Ambiguous labels such as "right-wing," "left-wing," "middle-of-the-roader," "ultra-conservative," "John Birch," "liberal," "super-patriot," and "pacifist" permeate our inter-sanctum forcefully, until we don't know who, what or which category we fall into.

We are all a little neurotic, so to speak, but the current trend of "labels" puts us on the verge of being schizophrenic. Our old buddy, Rufus Bogus, dropped into the office the other day in a wild-eyed and disheveled mess.

"I don't know which way to turn," he said, displaying a Barry Goldwater button and a Bertrand Russell peace badge.

"Last week I went on a peace march to play it safe and adopt the middle-of-the-roader policy. This was my worst move yet. When I came home from the meeting, my wife had both my suitcases packed and was telling me to go home to mother. I would have left then and there, but I thought that my mother might have left-wing leanings and I was afraid that I might be identified with them," Bogus nervously replied.

"My wife said that not one, but both her friends, Elsie and Lucinda, had admonished her for allowing me to be a middle-of-the-roader. According to Elsie, I was a communist tool again and according to Lucinda I was one of those ultra-conservative, super-patriot chaps," Rufus frantically replied.

"I don't know which way to turn," Rufus replied to us. "I am even afraid to drive down the right side of the street because somebody might call me a right-winger, and I am afraid to make a left turn because somebody might label me left-wing. I am even afraid to eat my favorite breakfast food because it might be the type which Fidel Castro eats," he said, his left eyeball twitching wildly, his right eyeball twitching and then both twitching in unison.

"I have at least solved the problem temporarily at home," he said. "I have declared myself as a liberal Republican, on the ban-the-bomb committee giving my full support to Fred Schwartz of the Birch Society, with heavy leanings towards admitting China to the UN. I have joined the American Legion and the Women's Peace Marchers and am in full support of medicare. I have also joined the Barry Goldwater committee and believe in peaceful co-existence with a philosophy of bigger and better bombs. My two prized slogans are, 'Better Red Than Dead,' and 'Attack Before Attacked.' I attend different church on Saturday and Sunday and kiss pictures of Lenin and Robert Welch before I go to bed," he said.

"So you see, Artemus, I don't know who, what, or where I am any more — I am a living paradox. But my wife is happy — both Elsie and Lucinda come over to the house nowadays and they always give me a warm smile while I sit babbling to myself in the corner," Rufus replied.

Rufus got up to leave. He looked over his right shoulder, his left shoulder, and under his legs.

"How long can I appease everybody?" he asked pleadingly of us. "Who am I going to be next?"

The answer was obvious when he left our office screaming and foaming. He finally made his own world.

But is he a left-wing schizophrenic or a right-wing schizophrenic?

The Daly City police department thought that they had discovered one of the most ghastly crimes in the annals of local history last week. Patrol officer Robert Stables, checking out doors on Mission street, noticed that the door to the Hilltop Beauty School was unlocked.

The intrepid officer decided to check the darkened premises. After several steps into the gloom past leering driers and shadow-reflecting mirrors, Stables noticed an oval object on the floor. Closer scrutiny disclosed that it was a human head.

Even closer scrutiny revealed to the shoop-up officer that the object was a well-coiffured head of a dummy. Officer Stables, still a little shaky, put the object on a stand and locked the door — real tight.

State-Wide Building Code Lauded

Lowell Nelson, chief of the State Division of Housing, said this week he has been very gratified at the widespread interest aroused by proposed new rules and regulations which will give California its first statewide residential building performance standards.

He said constructive comment and suggestions have been received from building officials and construction industry spokesmen all over the state.

"The industry and local enforcement agencies have appreciated the opportunity to participate in developing these modern, flexible building performance standards."

"It means greater protection for the public, and savings to the industry by reducing confusion that often results from overlapping and sometimes archaic codes."

Public hearings on the proposed new regulations will be held August 28 in Los Angeles and August 30 in Sacramento.

More than 2,000 copies of the proposed regulations have been distributed to building officials, engineers, architects and members of the building and construction industry throughout the state for review and comment.

The rules and regulations are required under the new State Housing Law passed by the 1961 Legislature after a study by the Assembly Subcommittee on Fire Protection and Residential Safety.

Developed by the Division of Housing, Department of Industrial Relations, they set minimum standards for the construction and maintenance of hotels, apartments and dwellings throughout the state.

Nelson said that although the division used existing nationally recognized codes as guideposts, consideration was also given to recommendations solicited from the building and construction industry, architects, engineers and local building officials.

He said the rules and regulations will be enforced by cities and counties, which may also adopt more stringent provisions if they desire. However, the law requires the division of Housing to enforce the minimum standards where no local enforcement agencies exist.

Nelson said hearings will be held August 28 in Los Angeles at 10 a.m. in Room 115 of the State Building, 217 West First street, and in Sacramento on August 30 at 10 a.m. in Room 5168 of the State Capitol.

Both written and oral statements will be heard, Nelson said.

UNITED BAY AREA CRUSADE KICKOFF DINNER SEPT. 18

Harry A. Stuhldreher, United States Steel executive, who achieved sports immortality as one of Notre Dame's famous "Four Horsemen," will speak at the giant community dinner kicking off this year's $11,250,000 United Bay Area Crusade campaign.

The colorful annual celebration, this year to be attended by volunteer Crusaders from all five UBAEC counties—Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, San Francisco and San Mateo—will be held in Oakland on Tuesday evening, September 18. Upwards of 2,000 are expected to pay their way into the kick-off event.

Announcement of Stuhldreher's appearance to "blow the whistle" fielding some 50,000 volunteer fund-raisers in behalf of community welfare agencies was made by Lloyd E. Graybiel, general chairman of the dinner.

"An accomplished and inspirational speaker, Stuhldreher has addressed kick-off affairs of united welfare funds throughout the country and is himself active in the United Crusade organization and Crusade agencies in Pittsburgh, Pa.," Graybiel said.

The famed Notre Dame quarterback, a luminary in the National Football Hall of Fame and Helms Foundation Hall of Fame, joined United States Steel as assistant to the vice president in 1950, after a distinguished career as coach at Villanova University from 1925 to 1935 and as both athletic director and coach at the University of Wisconsin from 1936 to 1950.

Bay residents and Stanford graduates will perhaps recall another of Stuhldreher's personal appearances in California when he led the Fighting Irish to victory over Stanford in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1, 1925.

In Pittsburgh, he currently is a volunteer Crusade leader; a member of the executive board of Allegheny Council, Boy Scouts of America, and a director of Boys' Clubs of Pittsburgh, both Crusade agencies.

As a United Bay Area Crusade kick-off speaker, he joins a roster of internationally-known personages who have launched the united community fund at previous sell-out celebrations, including Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, former Mayor H. Roe Bartle of Kansas City and former Gov. Arthur B. Langlie of Washington.

A Hollywood personality will serve as kick-off teammate to Stuhldreher, handling the master of ceremonies assignment. Former kick-off MC's have been Morey Amsterdam, Steve Allen, Wendell Corey, George Murphy and James Stewart.

Chairman Graybiel said this year's dinner, which has been moved up to September 18 from a previously announced date of September 20, will follow a Rancho, West Indies, Riverside Club, the Mapes Hotel and the Holiday Hotel in Reno.

During the war, Melba played many hospital shows with such well-known entertainers

Bosch Sales Office Plans S. S. F. Move

The West Coast sales and service office of Robert Bosch Corporation will move after January 1 from San Francisco to a new 20,000 square foot building in South San Francisco, to be built by Associated Construction & Engineering Co. of California, Inc., Manager Eberhard P. Woerz announced this week.

Robert Bosch Corporation sells, distributes and services Bosch automotive equipment, including fuel injection equipment and auto radio antennas, Blaupunkt FM/AM and AM auto radios and Junkers instantaneous gas water heaters, as well as other import items, from its Bay area office to the 13 western states, including Hawaii and Alaska, Woerz said.

Bosch has been at 225 Seventh street in San Francisco since 1956. The new building on Beacon street in South San Francisco, will be ready after December 31, according to John L. Chapman, president of Associated Construction & Engineering of South San Francisco. Construction will begin within a few weeks.

Woerz said all of the Bosch Corporation's present employees in San Francisco are expected to move with the company. The parent Robert Bosch GmbH, Stuttgart, Germany, is a 76-year-old manufacturing and distributing organization, with more than 200 agencies around the world.

town talk

I TOLD YOU SO . . . Reinforcements finally arrived to support my claim that Daly City parking meters are so-called "cheater meters." George "Top O' The Hill" Kirchhubel told city council last Monday that the public is getting clipped.

After the meeting, Kirchhubel proved his point. This is how the meters cheat: Put your penny in and you get 12 minutes of parking. However, if you place another penny in the meter after two minutes of the 12 have elapsed, you get only two minutes . . . the meter will not register past 12 minutes, thus robbing you of ten minutes parking.

Julius Castelan, engineer, got a laugh at the Lions Club last week when he came up with a startling, new proposal for the "first service program" of the year for the local club.

His zany idea is to have Daly City Lions put clothes on nude dogs — sort of an anti-obscenity move.

Joseph Matola, owner of the new Joseph's Photo Shop at the Top of the Hill in Daly City, plays string bass as a side line. Matola formerly played at the William Tell Hotel in San Francisco.

If anybody puts Daly City on the map, it will be the Gateway Chevrolet Company. The company has applied for a request to build a 90 feet high sign with flashing neon lights and a revolving Golden Gate Bridge atop.

There is also an application for a variance in order to build the sign that high . . . since the sign is to be 60 feet higher than the height limit—which is 30 feet.

The widest part of the sign is to be 24 feet . . . this will be a large Gateway sign. Below that will be a Chevrolet emblem 14 feet wide . . . on top of Gateway sign is a light tower of the Golden Gate Bridge . . . near the peak is to be a strobe unit to flash like a star with lines radiating from it.

DALY CITY TEENAGERS, not wanting to dress like a Bart, or a Drip, or a Beat, might take a hint from the latest fad originating from London.

London young people, who have contributed their share of fads to the "beat" generation, have introduced the successor to the beatnik, who, if nothing else, at least looks like a member of the human race.

He is the "modernist," otherwise called the "mod." He shaves, bathes and dresses immaculately — not in leopard skins or old stockings, but in a well-tailored business suit.

The "mod" is a pseudo-intellectual eager to discuss current political and economic problems. Like all his predecessors, he protests, but it is apparent what he is most against is the creature who once represented his generation.

TESTING THAT WINDSHIELD WIPER

One way to increase the difficulties of headlight glare is to test the windshield wiper when the windshield is dry.

In such an operation, hard dust particles are scraped across the surface of the glass and scratch it, and these scratches further distort headlight beams of approaching cars.

If you have to test that wiper, the National Automobile Club advises you to wet the windshield first, lift the cleaner arm away from the glass, or wait until it's raining.
